Prologue

My name is Horikawa Kento. I'm an employee on a submarine company, single, 35 years old.

Why submarine? In a world filled with competitive sense, the company that is sinking down with its employee is a submarine.

So, now with a pressure given from my manager I decided to take a day off. I still have some savings from my deceased parents and a house so I don't really need to work. However I do it to socialize. I don't have any friends, not even someone from opposite sex will pick up their phone if I call. Because of that I will spend my times playing a game.

It was a net game. Net game has a wide variety and you can do it alone. I look at a game called "hunter life" which is unpopular. It was supposed to come out two years ago but the development has been on hold. It status is open beta but no update for two years. It was a mixed game like "snow drop" eroge with magic skill like "monster hunter" that is a hit on portablr game. The most attractive part is the sign of 18+ that is circled and crossed in red colour. I was kind of interested without reading the manual.

I installed the client in the PC and lrocees to character creation screen. It has some CG effect which is failed to be displayed because of my PC specs. I wonder if it will run the game smoothly. For now I'll just create a character .

The first one is tribe.

Ashura, Dragon, beastman, succubus, mystic, ghost, demon, devil and many more lined up. When I hover the mouse it have some explanatory text. I choose demon tribe that has average overall ability.

Next is apperance, I didn't bothered and choose default. Altough the face is similar to me it wasn't a big deal.

And then the name. My Kento name is changed to "Kent", and the age I lowered it to 15 years. For the age I don't think it mattered much.

Finally, the skill selection. There are skill slot determined with wide range of choice. From combat skill, gun skill, manufacturing skill, weapon knowledge, trade negotiations and much more. However the initial slot is for four skill. Anyway this is just a test character and I will create a serious one once I get used to it. I press the random button.

The random skill was shown in a baloon like pop up.

[handsome], [well protected], [womanizer], [sexual prodigies].

[Handsome] is good..

[well protected] what is that mean?

But, [womanizer] and [sexual prodigies] am I going to be a Harem king or a pimp?

I could press the random button again but the temptation of two hidden erotic skill override my rationality.

So I press the OK button.

I don’t know what I am going to do without combat and general skill. I may need to learn them later on. To end the character creation there is a letter of warning.

I pressed the [Enter] button.

[Are you ready for the game with this character? YES / NO]

It is of course YES. Nice skill! Erotic Hurrah! !

[Are you sure? YES / NO]

YES! YES! YES!

I was to impatient to start playing.

[So, we will have to proceed with summoning to a different world, Grimoire]

Summoning? I was watching the monitor screen..

It shine really bright and I lost my consciousness....

Chapter 01 - Awakening

I wake up..

I was supposed to be inside my house… However..

I'm surrounded by trees.. I am in the middle of a forest..

How? Why?

I was trying to play a net game in my house. But the feel of comfortable grass, the smell of nature, it all so real..

I remember there is a bright light when I was looking at the monitor and a window of summoning to a different world.

I look around and noticed a semi-transparent window at the edge of my field of vision. I tried to focus on it and saw a menu screen.

Is this a game?

If this is only a game, it was a highly advabced virtual reality game.

Even VRMMORPG with dive system hasn't been developed. There is a gap of technology.

I look at the menu screen calmly. There are status, skill, equipment, and there's an ON/OFF function for map display, party, and others.

I look at the map and a semi-transparent windows pop up in front of me. It has a black background with a red dot blinking. It seemed that the red dot is me. I tried to move and yeah, that was me. Then I tried to look at my status.

Language: English Reading: None

Combat job: None General job: None

Combat Skills : None

General Skills : None

Initial Skills : Handsome, Well protected, Womanizer, Sexual prodigies

Equipment : basic clothes

It is the same character that I created. The problem is I couldn't readjust my stats and skill. I don't know if I am strong or weak. Let's fiddle with it more. I make the HP and MP to be displayed on the top right of my field of vision.

The only menu left to check is inventory and skills.

Inventory is where I put my belonging but I don't have anything with me.

The skills were divided into combat – general – initial. The combat also divided into physical and magic skill. So I tried to check my skill and the legendary windows come up.

(TL note: the initial skill maybe passive or increasing skill but I'll used initial for now)

Handsome: it will be easier when interacting and increasing intimacy with opposite sex.

Unique skill.

Well protected: it will be easier to cooperate, invited to party, and obtaining gifts from opposite sex.

Unique skill.

Womanizer: the chance for you to seduce and engaged in sexual activity with opposite sex is greatly increased.

Unique skill.

Sex prodigy: you won't get tired from sexual activity.

Unique skill.

Although it was all unique skill however it was terrible. It is only useful if I become an AV actor. Still I am relieved it was only effective to opposite sex. Of course I am a normal and healthy man!

However there is no option to log out. Maybe it can only be done at a save point.

There is no point in guessing so I decided to walk and explore.

Maybe I could find a house, some people, but… I was lost…

The map display didn't show any town or information. I continue to walk and I feel thirsty and hungry. It was good that they devoted themself to make it as real as possible. However no log out button and map display isn't working, makes me want to give the developer long hours of preaching.

When I was cursing them, the grass behind me began to shake.

I turned around and saw a silver mantis. It wasn't a normal one. It was three meters tall. The oversized mantis is watching me with its eye, he lifted his huge silver sickle, something that looked like a mouth is grinning.

This guy seemed to lock on me. I am his target.

I fall to the ground and can't move. My leg is frozen in fear.

The mantis swung down its silver sickle and with a huge wind noise, it move past my cheek.

I felt the danger of death from the pain on my cheek.

"Is this only a game? "

I saw my HP bar is draining like crazy and the pain is too much for me causing me to scream in agony.

This game is ridiculous.

Is this hard mode? Nightmare? Hell?

The silver mantis allroached me and I couldn't even stand up. The mantis jumped and landed on top of me.

All my limbs were restricted.

I had tasted the fear of death. The terror, the pain, I feel I could passed out any moment. However the stinging pain brings me back again to reality.

The mantis and me is looking at each other. However one is the prey and the other is the predator.

I could feel my body cowering in fear. Lukewarm feeling fleeting down from my cheek.

The mantis raised his sickle sending me to the aftelife.

I closed my eyes..

I hope there is not much pain.

The hot liquid poured down on my body.

Is this my blood?

No, there is no pain.

I opened my eyes slowly and saw the silver mantis..

The head was gone..

Now, you can either took the would be my blood?

But, it does not come at all is pain.

Opening the fearfully eye, there is was a mantis that you no longer head and sickle.

Chapter 02 - Encounter With A Beauty

“Boy, are you alright? Are you alive? ”

It was a clear and warm voice.

” Thank you for your help. If it wasn’t for you, I might have been dead. ” [Kent]

I looked at voice owner and surprised that it belong to a woman clothed in armor.

It was a blonde with blue eyes. Her face is beautiful and the most important thing is her chest. It was Huuuge! At least an E cup. Wait.. Is that a wing? And that’s a small horn hidden between her hair!

Behind her back, appear bat like wings like the one they wear in cosplay.

She approached me and stopped infront of me. Oh no my eyes couldn’t move away from her two mountains. I need to look away in a hurry but she doesn’t seemed to care.

“Don’t worry. I don’t mind it. Afterall you are still growing. ”

” Um sorry.. It wasn’t on purpose. ” [Kent]

That’s the best excuse I can think of. However thinking that ahe was just an NPC inside a gamr makes me maintain my composure. If she was real, I will go bury myself in the sand.

Then she helped me putting aside the mantis corpse.

” this silver mantis is really dangerous. It was fortunate that you are safe. ”

” Ah. Thank you once again! ” [Kent]

I tried to stand up but the pain on my cheek stings me. I used my fingers to check the wound, there is a small cut. Is.. This real?

” Oh, you’ve got some wound. Here let me do this, [healing light]! ”

She is doing something while putting her hand on my cheek. After she muttered something that is not familiar on my ear, lights come out from her habd and it feels warm on ny cheek. When the light disappears from her hand, she remove her hand from my cheeks.

“Wha.. I doesn’t hurt anymore. Amazing! ”

” Boy, don’t you know magic? ”

” Ah it was magic! It is so awesome. ”

" It was only a basic healing spell. I couldn't do more than that. " she is slightly embarrassed but happy hearing the compliment.

" That's not true, if it wasn't for you I will be this guy prey right now. "

" Well, you might have a good luck. Come to think of it, we haven't introduced ourselves. "

Oh yeah, I haven't know the name of my beauty.. Erm.. My benefactor I mean. Where is my courtesy? Even if she was just an NPC inside a game I still have to keep my manner.

" Sorry, my name is Kent. " [Kent]

" My name is Miriaria. "

" This is inside a game right? " [Kent]

" Ga.. mu? " [Miriaria]

It seemed that she didn't even understand the word game.

" Miriaria-san, mind if I ask a question? Is that horn and wings are real? " [Kent]

Hearing my question she just give me a confused look.

" Don't you know that I come from succubus race? You never see someone from my race? " [Miriaria]

" Sorry for the rude question. It's just.. This is the first time I saw it with my own eyes. " [Kent]

" Well it couldn't be helped then. Anyway, we need to do something with that. " [Miriaria]

She is looking to the area inbetween my leg. Oh no.. It was wet with my own pee. I released it out of fear of the death.

" No! Please don't look at me. " [Kent]

It was a shame that I put such a sorry sight on our first encounter. I want to run away.. No.. I want to bury myself inside the sand. Seriously I tried to hide it with my hands.

Miriaria only giggled while saying. " Wait until I finished collecting materials from the mantis. Then I will take you to a nearby fountain to clean up."

"Ah yeah.. Mantis blood also reek a lot. " [Kent]

" Don't worry, it won't be long. " [Miriaria]

I was waiting for her to finished dismantling while I tried to analyze the situation.

There’s something flashing in the corner of my field of vision.

> [Miriaria] state: favorable

If I read the log, it seemed her state has changed to be in my favor.

The power of unique skill [Handsome] should be feared. Her affection towards me is favorable even if I’m just a peeing man.

“Kent, let’s go. I have finished collecting the material. ” [Miriaria]

Behind her back, I can see the silver mantis sickle hanging, it was quite a bizzare sight. As a man, I have to do something.

” Miriaria, seems like that sickle is heavy. Let me carry it for you. ” [Kent]

" Don't worry. This is quite heavy you know. " [Miriaria]

" Even so, let me just express my gratitude for saving my life. Leave the luggage to me. " [Kent]

Due to my persistence, she finally give in. She handed the sickle to me and..

Ugya~ this is heavy! I couldn't stand straight and my foot somehow jittery.

" Kent, are you okay? Don't overdo yourself. " [Miriaria]

" Don't worry . This isn't heavy at all. Hahaha. " [Kent]

" Just tell me if you need help okay. " [Miriaria]

Chapter 03 - Beauty And Bathing

From the location where I got attacked by the silver mantis, we walked around twenty minutes. It was hidden by dense trees, a fountain that coming from the springs and the water was clear and you could see trough it.

“Now, we have arrived. Kent, please take off your clothes. ” [Miriaria]

Miriaria is approaching me while spreading out her arms.

” Wait! I can take it off by myself. You could wait over there. ” [Kent]

” Is that so? Alright, I’ll make a fire so we can dry your clothes after you washed it. ” [Miriaria]

Afterwards, I move behind a stone and undressed my self. I will washed my clothes after entered the cold bath.

” Uu, it is cold. I really missed soaking in hot water. Onsen.. ” [Kent]

However the cold water could easily remove the dirt and stain on my body. It was clean not long after. Then I washed my clothes. After it was clean, I folded it and turned my body around to put it on a stone behind me.

Unfortunately, I saw something I couldn't forget. Miriaria is already stark naked and trying to enter the fountain.

"Miriaria! What are you doing? " [Kent]

" What? I wanted to take a bath too. " [Miriaria]

(TL note: this one is a pun alright, it was funny though how the author describe it. Imagine it was a scene on a battleship)

The sight of her two main gun entered my consciousness.

Lock on.. Search completed.

" Commander, reporting! We have encountered the enemy! The enemy main gun estimated to be E-class. No.. It was G class! Commander, we have G class enemy. "

I can feel my brain freezed.

" Commander, the enemy data had arrived. From Top: 154, B:88, W:55, H:85. It should be noted that the enemy gun is aimed at us! "

" What? How do we handle this situation? That G cup is armed. "

" Quick, dodge it! Use the speed to dodge it. "

" Ay captain, we couldn't dodge, the speed was too fast. In the radar it was signaling that we’re locked! ”

” Darn, turn the ship, at least try to dodge. If we got hit, our ship will sunk. ”

I tried to look away from Miriaria body.

” Kent, are you embarrassed? How cute. ” [Miriaria]

Oh no, Miriaria bombshell is approaching without even a single thread to cover it.

” Captain! It’s useless. Thirty more seconds before we enter the enemy field of fire. ”

” darn it, prepare our best, be ready! ”

” Captain, bullets incoming. ”

” All hands prepare for collision! ”

Miriaria catched me and I was wrapped in the two big and fluffy marshmallows. Then, something small and hard touched my cheek.

” Tsu, captain! The enemy bullet have hit us. Second turret damaged, third and fourth has collapsed. We’re in danger. ”

" Mechanics! "

" It is useless captain, the limit had been reached. The ship will sink. "

" Alright we got no choice. Abandon the ship! Abandon! "

" Life boat is ready captain. "

" Just leave me here. I will remain in the ship. Just tell my son that I died honorably while fighting a G-class. "

" Alright, all hands, salute to the captain. "

My consciousness is moving back as my mental strength ship has been sunk. I can smell her body odour. The soft feeling around my face.

" Oh no, please don't come out. Oi, hide! " [Kent]

" Kent, why don't we take a bath together? " [Miriaria]

"No, it couldn't be stopped anymore. " [Kent]

" Kent, is there something wrong with your lower body? " [Miriaria]

The hand of Miriaria touches my important son. [TL : son = penis]

No touch! Touching is prohibited! Hey! Why my voice won’t come out?

Miriaria whispered to my ear. ” Kent, are you still a virgin? Don’t worry, big sister will teach you. ”

Miriaria is too aggresive. She is a beast, and I will be eaten if thing goes like this.

“Miriaria but isn’t this kind of thing should be done when we know each other better? ” [Kent]

” but, aren’t you ready for this? I’m alright even if we do it now. ” [Miriaria]

” But, we’ll catch a cold like this. Please stop now. ” [Kent]

” Aaa.. Sorry.. ” [Miriaria]

I was trying hard to break trough her control and succeed.

I was moving back and I could see her clothes scattered on the ground. I--i--is that a g-string? I looked back at her and I saw her two generous peach floating on the water. Really, she is dangerous.

When I arrived at the bonfire and sit down, I noticed something is blinking in the corner of my eyes.

Seriously? I just met her today and she already fallen in love with me? Really this [handsome] skill is so scary.

However, I feel that my chasity is in danger. I was originally a thirty five years old virgin. Of course a virgin above thirty years old can be considered as a sage in the real world. I didn't care thiugh because I want to at least keep my soul pure for my destined one.

I also remember she mentioned that she is a succubus. Isn't it a race that have sex with a male and suck out their soul? I will become a mummy afterwards. I really need to go partways from her tomorrow.

Nc Ch 04 - A Different Game World Or A Dream?

‘Gyuuu~..”

It was the sound coming from my stomach. It has been some time since I survived from the mantis attack. While I was waiting for my clothes to dry, I mess with my menu screen.

It was too late but I regretted that I didn’t read the game manual before transported into this game world. Is this the famous VRMMORPG dive system? However I don’t have any VR equipment with me. My old built up PC couldn’t even support high end game what’s more VR game. The last thing I remember is [So, we will have to proceed with summoning to a different world, Grimoire] .

I understand the logic of summoning however is it really real? The fact that I was transported to a game world is shocking my mind. So, this hungry feeling is real, not some VR technology sense stimulation. Right now I can only make these conclusion.

1. [Hunter life], this game actually a VRMMORPG game without a log out button.
2. [Hunter life] causing me to actually transported to another world
3. Right now I am inside the [hunter life] in another world

This is so funny. If this was a dream, I wish I wake up right now. If it was a game, maybe when I arrived in the city there will be a building named ‘costumer service center’. I don’t have any other choice but to live my current life.

The smell of the grass is real. If I was transported to another world, I can accept my situation. But these game menu and message logs that is look like a game, I couldn't eliminate the possibility of this is one of those VR world.

But, I really need to take care of this hunger level. I could see that my hunger bar is decreasing and at a red limit.

sigh

This is useless. I don't know what can I eat or not in this world. What happened if I died because of starving? Is there a revive point? I look around and see mushrooms grew in the root of a nearby tree. Can I cook it in the bon fire?

In a hurry because of the hunger, I take a tree branch, put the mushroom on it and roasted it. Not long after, fragrant smell fills the air. If only there is a soy sauce and other seasoning. However I don't care anymore, this hunger state is killing me.

However when I tried to eat the mushroom, a black thing flew past in front of my eyes in a great speed. I look at it and it was a dagger.

"Phew.. I made it in time."

"heh?"

It seemed that Miriaria is the one who throw it. She is trying to stop me from eating the mushroom.

“kent, that mushroom is poisonous. Even just a bite could send you directly to the afterlife.”

“what? Lies!”

“No, the plants and animals in this forest is all poisonous because the area is full of toxins. And that mushroom is one of the deadliest plants in here.”

How can this mushroom be poisonous? Look at the colour? It was blazing red with white dots. It is tempting me to eat it.

“but my stomach is hurting.”

“kent, if you want to eat then please wait a while. I will be cooking. Please eat this to hold your hunger for now.”

Then Miriaria passed me a leather bag. Inside of it were nuts similar to walnut. I tried to crack the shell bare handed and I can do it easily, when I tried to eat the brown fruit inside, it was crunchy, sweet and the aroma was delicious. I don’t know if it was really delicious or I am too hungry to care. I continue to eat it. Two, three, when I realized, the leather bag is empty.

“Miriaria, sorry it seemed that I ate all of it.”

“What?” Miriaria was surprised and then sighing.

“Is this expensive food? Sorry, I didn’t mean to do this. I’m sorry.”

“No, it’s not that expensive, it’s just..”

“What? Is there a poisonous effect if it was taken more than normal?”

“No, there is just a little bit of side effects but you shouldn’t worry much about it. Anyway, dinner is ready. Let’s eat it.”

The meal Miriaria made was bread and roasted rabbit and grilled fish. I eat until my belly bulged. Really, for me who is used to eat the food from convenience store, the taste of Miriaria home cooking was too good too be true and the taste was superb.

“Really, this is delicious!”

“Hey, don’t talk while your mouth is full. Look at how messy you are.”

Then Miriaria pick a crumb that was sticking to my mouth and throw it inside her mouth. Actually this kind of scene is embarrassing.

After the dinner ends, Miriaria come and asked me.

“By the way Kent, why are you alone in the forest? You are deep inside of the forest and there is no way you could have traveled there alone.”

“I don’t know. When I wake up, I was already there.”

“are you saying that you were kidnapped? Where did you live? Won’t your parents be worried?”

“actually my parents have passed away and the place where I come from is called Japan.”

“Ah, I’m sorry to hear about your parents. But, I never heard of a village called Japan. I have travelled across the continent but I never heard that name.”

So, the possibility of Miriaria is a NPC was high since she doesn’t know the words Japan. Maybe if I go to the city I could get the information I’m looking for.

“Miriaria san, is it possible for us to go to a city?”

“Of course, that wasn’t a problem. I also need to go to a city not far from here. It was the Abisuvu city near here. I’ll take you there.”

“Thank you Miriaria san.”

Of course I need her to show me the way since I don’t know the area. I feel safe because she could defend me from monster attack but I might get attacked first by her sexual harassment attack. Once I fall to her temptation I will be a dry mummy in the morning. Even a little while ago she tried to attack me in the fountain. Really, she is a succubus I can’t fall for her trick. But, that blonde hair, blue eyes and slender face. Perfect nostril and tempting mouth. Dynamite body and that G-class cannon, she was within my strike zone. The only thing that is stopping me from attacking her right now is the tails and wings behind her.

"Of course but I want to ask something from you."

Miriaria wanted to put up a condition. Is it money? Or will it be forced skinship? I don't have any money right now so, skinship was highly possible.

"but, I don't have any money."

"No, I don't need money. I want you to call me Miri! That's all."

I was relieved but somehow disappointed.

"Oh, is that all Miriaria san?"

"Kent, it's Miri! M-I-R-I!"

I couldn't miss it. Her face turned red for a moment there.

"Alright then…. Miri.."

"Ah, because it is dangerous to travel at night, let's make a camp here. Is that alright for you?"

There is no way for me to refuse isn’t it?

“Just keep the fire so it doesn’t die when I’m preparing the tent.”

After she said that she take a tent from her bag and start to assemble it. In the meantime I also checked my message log that is blinking.

> Handsome skilltriggered, [Miriaria] friendship significantly increased

> Well protected skill triggered, [Miriaria] protect you from poison

> Handsome skill triggered, [Miriaria] favor significantly increased

> Well protected skill triggered, [Miriaria] accepted your escort mission

> Handsome skill triggered, [Miriaria] favor significantly increased

> [Miriaria] state: In love with you

I read the log and noticed that this time the [well protected] skill is triggered for the first time. Miriaria state also been changed. Really thanks to [handsome] skill, in a day friendship becomes love. Surely friendship can turn to love but I didn’t even do anything.

She was in love with me. I don’t know if it was a good thing or bad thing. I wonder if I could survive the night against her succubus traits.

Nc Ch 05 - The Fall Of My Reasoning

(Tl note: this episode is such a tease.. this early chapter was so short but later on, when the story progressed further, you will smiled with a satisfaction after reading it)

Hot! My body is burning! It was as if I was boiled in hot water!

I was inside the tent that Miri made and writhing in pain. In particular my lower half is in a dangerous condition. As if all of the blood in my body is all concentrated to my nether area.

Somehow, the scene of Miri on the fountain was repeated in my mind like a movie. I know this might be because I am excited and aroused but I never feel this way. As Miri dynamite body is dancing in my mind, my lower half was hurting.

Should I ask Miri to turn off the fire? If she saw my lower body I will be embarrassed. Furthermore as time passed by, the situation is worsening. My member is swelling.

The Miri in my mind is now running wild. Now, my lust is skyrocketing as I imagined her doing some perverted things.

“Kent, are you okay?”

“Miri, don’t come here.”

I really don’t want her to look at me in this state.

“Is it really that bad?”

Miri is looking at me with a worried face. The images of the Miri in my mind and the real Miri is overlapping. Under the dimly illuminated lights, her appearance almost breaks my limit.

“This is bad.. if you come any closer I can’t hold my self back.”

“Kent, I think this is the effect of Totona that you ate earlier.”

Miri then comes to me to look at my condition. However her sweet body odor entered my nose.

My lower half is about to explode. I can’t endure it anymore. I need something to release me from this pain. There is Miri right? Her body is tempting me. I really can’t hold it back.

“Miri..”

“Sorry Kent. It was because I give you Totona.”

Miri is crying while looking at my condition. She was very beautiful however the urge to defiled her outdo my earlier thoughts.

“Miri.. sorry… I’m really the lowest.. I can’t hold it back anymore.”

Immediately I attacked her. I pushed her clothes upwards and her G-cannon is towering. However she doesn't try to hide it. she hugged me and whispered.

"It's alright. Afterall I love you."

The moment she said that, I become a beast. Single mindedly I am trying to pleasure myself as I tried to ease my pain. At that moment I feel that there is another consciousness inside of me. I was thrown out of my body and I watched the scene silently.

The scene where I was ravaging her like a madman.

Really, I'm the lowest man. The joy to have graduated from being a virgin can't be felt. There's only a huge guilt to Miri. Really, I will apologize to her later on.

So, my consciousness was lost at the same time I released something.

Nc Ch 06 - Master-Slave Contract

When I wake up, the feeling is the worst. Inside the tent, I still remember the tragedy of last night vividly.

Miri clothes scattered here and there. It was the proof that what happened yesterday wasn't a delusion. The feeling of bitter guilt is building from my stomach. I wanted to throw up. I feel sick of myself.

I was using Miri for my own desire. If I have to describe it, I was a 'beast'. Last night I didn't have any 'reason' or 'mind' as a human. Really, I'm the worst..

I stand up heavily because of regret in guilt. I get out of the tent however Miri is not there. Around the campfire, she wasn't there too. Maybe she left me behind. After what I did to her last night, she won't escorts me to the city.

At least, I want to apologize to her. I need to apologize to Miri. However there is not a trace of her around me. I wonder if she has left.

I was walking around and reached the fountain and I see a ray of hope. She was there. In a sense of relief and joy combined, I jumped inside the fountain. I don't even mind if my clothes get wet.

"Miri! "

Her shoulder are trembling hearing my call. I threw my arm around her and hugged her from behind.

" Miri.. I'm.. Really sorry. "

In a weak voice I can only offered my apology. I want to apologize more however no words can convey my feeling. Really I'm in a miserable state to the point I hated myself

Tears are flowing down from my eyes on her back. She was also crying. After that we cried for a while. Even in her nude condition, she turned her body and hugged me like a mother.

"Last night it wasn't your fault. It was mine. "

Miri is blaming herself.

" No, of course it was my fault! " I shouted out loud. How can she didn't blame me?

" Last night I hurted you. Even if I have to spend my lifetime to atone for my mistake. I will do anything you say. "

Miri cried more and said." Kent, I'm sorry.. I'm a cunning woman. "

After that she asked me to go back to the tent. Miri come back in a while after putting up some clothes. She then sit in front of me and her eyes met mine.

" Kent, please take this "black dagger". I'm a succubus and according to our law, please take this as a token of my pledge to serve you. I'm looking forward to your mercy as my master. "

Miri lowered her head and her atmosphere was different from before. It was warm, unlike when she was wearing her warrior facade. However I didn't understand what just happened.

" Eh? "

" We, succubus have an absolute law. We must serve those who did not die after spending a night with us. Because of that, my life is now in your hands. Please, show me your mercy. "

Miri lowered her head till it touched the floor. I immediately asked her to raise her head..

" Let me hear that story later on. For now, let me apologize for yesterday. "

" Kent.. "

" I've trampled your dignity for my own pleasure. Can you forgive a shameless man like me? "

I prostate in front of her. This is the only thing that I could do. Maybe she won't forgive me however this is for my own selfishness.

Miri then put her hand on my cheek and raised my head.

" Kent, if you take Miriaria 'black dagger', I'll forgive you. "

That words saved my heart from bleeding.

" Miri, Thank you! I'm really sorry. I'll do anything you say. "

Then Miri looked into my eyes again.

" Will you please become my master? "

" Master? Or are you referring to partner?" Miri face turned red and she shook her head quickly..

"No, it was different. It's more like I'm your slave. "

What? Slaves? Then even if I asked her to do this and that, she won't ask me to be responsible for it.

" Miri, are you sure about this? I might even ask you to do something indecent. "

" I'll do anything you want. Please, take me by your side. "

I hugged her and said." I understand that you are in this hard position because of the law. "

" Then, are you willing? "

" Yes. "

" Then, we should complete the contract. "

" Alright. "

" I swear my loyalty to Kent. I vowed to spent my live alongside with him. "

Miri sobbed a little while offering her dagger to me. I took it and said my vow.

" I, Kent, accepted Miriaria 'black dagger' alongside with her loyalty and pledge to live together as long as I'm alive.

After that she moved her head closed to mine and our lips entwined with each other.

Minutes passed for what it seemed to be eternity.

Miri let go of my lips slowly and asked.

"Kent, you won't regret this decision right? "

" Why should I? I'm more worried that I'll attack you again and you can't resist it. "

" Kent.. I.. Don't really mind. "

She said that while lowering her head. She was so cute. I might fall for her in the future.

After that the master and slave oath has been completed. I am now in a possession of the 'black dagger'. I didn't know that it will cause an uproar later on.

Chapter 7 – One Dark Night ※

-Miri PoV-

A painful voice can be heard from inside the tent. It was Kent voice. I dive into the tent in a hurry. I smell something directly, it was the smell of a man.

“Miri, you can’t come in now.”

Kent is warning me with a painful voice. My head is spinning due to the odor that is released by him.

“Are you really okay?”

Of course I have a clue why he become like this. It was because the totona he eat. Totona in fact is a kind of edible fruit and sometimes is used to enhance energy but when ingested in large amounts, it will become something more powerful. The effect of the totona finally revealed itself.

I rushed inside and look at him. He is calling my name with a sad face. I am hurting too. I don’t understand why but for a boy that I just met, I think I have fallen in love with him. It was a deep feeling of love.

“Kent, sorry.. this is because of me.”

I keep on repeating my apology.

“Miri, I am sorry. I can’t stop the beast inside of me. I’m sorry.”

It seemed he have reached his limit. He pushed me down and stripped down my clothes. I can’t say anything. He was suffering so much.

“ It’s alright, because I love you.”

The moment he hear my words, Kent have become a true best. He is touching all over my body to give pleasure. He is showing his lust and desire. I swallowed the wave of pleasure and lost control of the final line that I must not cross. I didn’t believe I just met him recently.

“Kent, this is bad!”

I need to stop this but Kent is clouded by his libido and my words can’t reach him. I can only give him everything. Everything and enjoyed something that I will regret later on.

I received all of his thrust and ravaging because when morning comes I know I’ve killed a man I love.

Drowned in pleasure, I can only received the warm embrace.

He is also giving me so much pleasure. I hope that tomorrow morning never comes. Waves of pleasure keep entering my body.

By the time I realized, the morning has come. I also feel a life force is entering my body from Kent trough our connected lower body.

“Kent… sorry….”

My tears come out because I have killed a man I love.

Because I am a succubus. A cursed demon girl that isn’t allowed to love or be loved.

After that I leave the tent and walk to the fountain to wash my body.

In the middle of the bath, my dazed state remind me, I need to bury his body.

However from the back, I was hugged by a warm embrace and a voice of someone I loved.

“Miri!”

It was Kent voice. Is this a dream? I wonder if I’m dead too.

“Please, I’m sorry..”

Kent was hugging me and his warmth body tell me this is true. He is alive. My cursed body didn’t affected him. I secretly cried out in joy. However why is he the one apologizing. It is me who should apologize.

“it wasn’t your fault Kent. It was mine.”

“No, you should blame me!”

Maybe Kent doesn’t realized the true nature of me. If I tell him the truth, I don’t want to be hated by him. This cursed body.

“I have hurt Miri by doing something I shouldn’t have last night. If there is something I can do.”

Kent feel he is the one at fault but the truth, it was me.

“Sorry Kent, I am a cunning woman.” I also give him my apologies.

I wonder if Kent will discard me after knowing the real me. I don't want to be separated from him. I then asked him to wait in the tent. I used the time to think of a reason to stay on his side. But, I almost killed him. Is the abundant totona intake is the reason he is alive? But I remember something. The rule of the succubus.

Kent didn't die after spending the night with me.

It is also possible that he have [sex prodigy] skill that can compete with my [vitality absorption].

Then I walk back to the tent. And speak of the rule.

"Kent, please take this dagger. According to the law of the succubus, I have to serve under you and I seek your mercy."

He is sitting on the floor and rubbed his head in confussion.

"Eh?"

Is he upset?

"You know that my race is succubus. We have a rule that if we spent a night and the man is still alive, we have to pledge our life to serve him. You will be my master and I will be your slave. The authority to decide my life and death, I leave it in your hand. And once again I ask for forgiveness."

Kent once again lowered his gaze but after a while his eye met mine.

"Let's hear about that law later. First, let me apologize properly of what happened last night.”

My chest tighten when I hear that.

“Kent.”

“I have trampled you and ravaged your body for my own pleasure. I am such a bad guy. Can you forgive me?”

Kent is begging for forgiveness with serious look.

I put my hand on his cheek.

“If you take this black dagger, I will forgive and receive all of you.”

Kent face becomes bright.

“Thank you Miri, really, I am sorry. I have do something unforgivable.”

I realized that maybe this is the reason I fall in love with him.

“Thank you, so will you be my master?”

However I really can’t comprehend him.

“Rather than a master and slave… will you be my partner?”

I was astonished because the word he said. A partner, is he saying he will take me as his wife? The image of being his wife comes in.

“Please don’t worry. If you are willing, I can even be a slave to your sexual needs, you are thinking too high of me.”

Like a dream, he sit besides me and speak gently.

“Miri is the benefactor of my life. How can I think of you as a sex slave.”

I fall in panic. Will he really shove me away. I don’t mind even becoming a sex slave as long as I can stay on his side.

“Please, I don’t mind even as a sex slave. I want to stay at your side.”

In my panicked state, Kent give me a hug.

“I understand this is because Miri race law. You don’t have to do it.”

“But, I want to make the pledge.”

Kent look at me.

“The pledge…”

I wanted to pledge my life to him. Maybe this is what love is.

“I am Kent, promised to pledge my live to Miri and even gives her my love.”

When he said that, I’ve cried. I can’t believe at how happy I am.

“I am Miri, pledge my live to Kent, with this dagger as the proof.”

After that Kent took my lips and our lips touched, entwined.

This is not a dream. The feeling of Kent lips was real.

“What if I become useless and Kent decided to abandon the oath?”

Then Kent answers shyly.

“I won’t do that. However I am more worried to hold myself back from sexually attacking you.”

I will stay on his side of course even if that is happening.

“I will work hard to meet Kent expectation. I will also do anything in my power to satisfy you.”

Of course I have given my heart and body to him. I will do anything it takes just to stay on his side.

Chapter 08 - Starting

Miri is packing up the tent. I offered to help but it was refused. Since I got nothing to do I began to check the log.

<<Handsome>> skill triggered, [Miriaria] friendship significantly increased

<<well protected>> skills triggered [Miriaria] give grilled fish barbecue

<<Handsome>> skill triggered, [Miriaria] friendship maxed out

<<Handsome>> skill triggered, [Miriaria] love significantly increased

<<Handsome>> skill triggered, [Miriaria] love significantly increased

[Miriaria] is using skill <<life absorption>>

[Kent] skill of <<sexual prodigy>> is triggered

Succubus [black dagger] acquired

[Kent] has been changed into the owner of [Miriaria]

[Miriaria] state: (slave of) love

So, what is this <<life absorption>> skill? Is this the one Miri traits as a succubus? As expected, <<sexual prodigy>> makes me able to resist the vitality that was absorbed in the process of making love with a succubus. If I didn't have that skill, right now I would have been dried up like a corpse. And what's with this new state of Miri? (slave of) love, so does she loves me or she is my slave? I'm really confused.

In front of me that is checking log, Miri is packing up the tent. In the process she have to crouched down and I can see a glance of her underwear. It was black, aggressive and stimulating. For a healthy boy like me, it was too dangerous. Miri, it was too dangerous if you show it to me. However from the vow that we make, it seemed that it was okay if I 'attacked' her and ravaged her. I also have a <<sexual prodigy>> skill that will protect me from succubus <<life absorption>>. So, it was all under my call now.

I am now her master and if I ordered, she couldn't refused to it. I will ask her about some of the rules between master and slave contract later. While watching the black taunting underwear, I see a new column in the menu, it was [party window].

I expanded it and saw Miri name over there. I also able to see her status when I clicked it.

Title:

-Kent’s slave

– S class assassin

– Healer

– knight of the kingdom

– head hunter of Succubus

I was amazed when I saw that. Well, I know she was strong but for her to be this great, she must be a great figure. Several job and assassin with a high level. Her title also isn't something to be overlook, knighthood and S class assassin, apart from my slave, she was a reputable person. In other words, isn't she one of the top expert in this world?

Aristocracy, is she a noble or a princess?

Am I worthy for her? When we leave the forest, I should be stronger. Strong enough to keep ourselves up. I don't want to be relying on her on money or food. I also have a pride as a man. Once we arrived at the town, maybe I could find a job while searching for info on how to get back to my original world. I will become a better man starting on this world so when I return, I don't have to try too hard. I closed the menu and make my resolve strong for the future. It seemed Miri also finished packing up the tent.

"Kent, sorry for the wait, I'm ready to go now."

"Let me carry the luggage."

At least I can do this much for now. I don't want her to be hindered by her luggage just in case a monster attacked us so I should take care of this.

"But this is heavy. Are you alright?"

"Huff….Huuaaaa… see, I'm strong."

“Hehe… if that’s so, I’ll leave it to you. However if you can’t carry it, just tell me.”

“I get it, now let’s move.”

We walked down the street while I was trying my best to carry the luggage. I hope I won’t pass out.

Chapter 9 – City of Wall, Abyss

According to Miri, the journet from the [Dark Forest] to [Abyss city] will take around two days. Although we encountered some monsters but Miri power makes our journet proceed without difficulty.

On the way, I was taught general knowledge of this world from Miri. This world is another world called [Grimoire]. We are now in a continent called magic continent. The one who ruled in this continent is a demon country called “Shinma Kingdom”.

Shinma Kingdom is composed of eight tribes. “Makotoma-zoku(TL note: this one is temporary)”, “Black dragon”, “Nightmare(Succubus)”, “Ashura”, “Rasetsu”, “Beast”, “mystic” and “demons”. The ratio of the population is 100 Makotoma : 1 Black dragon: 1 nightmare : 3 ashura : 5 Rasetsu : 5 Beast : 15 mystic : 30 demon and : 40 monsters.

Next, the language that is used in the Kingdom is called [westron]. Although I can understand the language but it wasn’t the same with writing. I can’t read the written character. There is also another tribe language like mystic language, dragon language and beast language. However the [westron] language is seemed like their national language to communicate. It is also used in this world so for me who have a bad score on language and literature, it was a relieve.

However Miri will teach me to read the character. In any world, there is nothing good that will come to someone who can’t read and write.

I also know that in this world there is something called [magic]. Miri showed me some recovery magic. The first time I saw it, indeed I realized that this is a fantasy world.

I asked Miri to show me some beginner offensive fire magic, from her fingertip, five arrows of fire immediately jolted out. It was great and wonderful, I asked her to teach me but she refused. It seemed that all teaching of magic can only be given in the [sorcerer's guild]. You also will need a magic certificate to use it out open. It was rare for people who can use magic without going trough the certification test, however it turn out that their level of magic usually was really low.

This world is not a game. It was real but I don't know if I could return or whether I have been summoned here. I need some power in order to survive. That is also the reason I want to learn magic but the more I learn about it I get discouraged.

It doesn't take long to arrived at the [abyss city] since the conversation makes the distance seems close. Abyss city is the biggest city in the south of Shinma kingdom. It was a city surrounded by tall walls. The city itself divided into four parts, north, south, east and west and each parts covered a four kilometers square.

In the north, there is a mansion of the lord of the city. In the south is a hunter districts where inn, taverns, and hunter guild can be found. In the west side, Sorcerer's guild and magic shop is located. In the east are the shopping district that is full of blacksmith and merchants. Apparently there is also the kingdom military garrison nearby the city.

We're now going to enter trough the south gate. There are also four to five people who was about to enter the town.

“Halt! Please show your identification card or a guild card to enter and 3 copper as the entrance fee.”

Someone who seemed to be the gatekeeper is saying that out loud. However I don’t know if it was expensive or cheap since I don’t know the value and price on this world.

“Next!”

Finally it is our turn.

“Please show me your ID card or guild card.”

“I don’t have both. Also I don’t have money.”

As I said that, his face shows a big question mark. Then Miri come approached me.

“I am a servants of Kent.”

The face of the gatekeeper who saw Miri becomes white beyond pale.

“Black dagger-sama!!”

Then he started to cause some commotion and buzz.

“Can I be the one who guaranteed his identity to enter?”

“Yes, please, please.”

The gatekeeper then bows and give us a VIP treatment. In front of us, the path immediately opened. However, who is Miri? She seemed to be a noble and received a VIP treatment in the city.

“Sorry Kent I have to do that. When entering the town, even if you pay the entrance fee but if I don’t do that they still have troublesome procedures.”

“Don’t worry. However you are so awesome Miri. Even the gatekeeper respected you.”

“Well, it’s because I’m quite well known in the city.”

Miri said that and show a little shy.

“The, do you have somewhere you want to visit?”

“No, I don’t have any place that I’m interested in particular. I’ll just go where you go Miri.”

Although I wanted to gather some information but I still don’t know about this world. It would be better to go with Miri. After that, Miri take me to tour the town.

“Alright, now we only need to visit the Hunter guild and find a place to rest.”

“So, why don’t we do that earlier? “

“I just want to stroll around with you.”

Without any shame, Miri said that. In my world, strolling around like before and going sightseeing can be considered as a “date”. This world might not consider it that way but acting all lovey-dovey , holding hands in the public, eating together, isn’t this a “date”?

While I was thinking that way, we have arrived at the Hunter Guild.

Chapter 10 - Hunter Guild

On the way after visiting variety of inn and tavern, our lodging has been chosen. It was kind of deserted in the afternoon but in the evening Miri said that it was quite lively. While speaking about some things, we are walking, heading into a two story large wooden building.

The size is around a high school gymnasium and lots of people going in and out. I entered the building with Miri. Inside, I saw around forty to fifty people, men and women chatting although most of them are from Demi-human race like me. There are also beast tribes mixed in there.

“Well, can you give me my bag and wait here?”

I passed the bag that I carried and Miri goes into a counter carrying the bag. Will she sell the Silver mantis material? I wonder what kind of system is used to give evidence of subdue a monster. I could hear a voice in the distance.

“What can I help you?”

It was a young woman with a brunette hair. She is wearing an apron with a tight skirt and her large chest area stood out more.

“Well..”

Actually I don’t have something particular to do except waiting for Miri.

I wonder if I should order some food.

“I’m sorry but I don’t know.”

She shakes her head vigorously then her highlighted chest shakes as she said: “Ah, I’m sorry. Since I was asked by Miri I forget about it.”

After that she takes out a menu and gives it to me. It was embarrassing but I couldn’t read it and have to retort to my trump card.

“So, what did you recommend?”

“Hmm.. Well..”

She then leans forward to my side and look at the menu together with me. Her face is so close. I can’t even concentrate because a little valley has been formed in between her breasts. Her cleavage is in full view.

—-

“Aaak.. Reporting captain. Enemy spotted.”

“What is the rank?”

“It was H, the Hell-class.”

“What? Impossible.”

“But it was true captain. It was a H.”

“The Hell class is reality.”

“Whoa, I couldn’t believe it. so, should we go at it full power?”

“Is there a way to escape?”

“Well, this is delicious, fin fish soup and this tomato beef stew is the best.”

“Alright, I’ll take your recommendations then…”

“Ah, Feria. My name is Feria, nice to meet you Kent.”

I wonder how she know my name. maybe it was Miri who tell her.

“Well, please bring me the recommended dish Feria.”

“it will be tomato beef stew and vegetable salad is that alright?”

“Yes, please.”

After that Feria walked towards the kitchen while something is swinging and jiggling around. After a while she comes back with a glass and whispered to my ear.

"This one is my treat."

I tasted it and it is a kind of diluted fruit juice. While waiting for my food I checked my message log.

> Handsome skill triggered, [Feria] friendship significantly increased

> Handsome skill triggered, [Feria] friendship significantly increased

> Handsome skill triggered, [Feria] friendship significantly increased

> [Feria] state: in favor

> Well protected skill triggered, fruit juice acquired.

I am nervous seeing the log. It was going up slowly because of [handsome] skill.

Although it affected beautiful woman just now but if it affects an old age woman or little girl, it will be quite a troublesome situation. If they fall in love with me, the worst solution is I have to hide my face with some kind of mask. While thinking so, Feria comes and carried the meal.

"Please enjoy the food but be careful because it's still hot. Or do you want me to blow on it? Fufu."

Definitely the later option is something that called a special service. If I refused, I'm not a man right? Her eastern European appearance with brunette hair is something to die for.

"By all means, please blow on it."

However Feria face gradually lost it's color. What is wrong? Is that the wrong choice?

"Hii, Miss Miri, it's a joke. Don't make such a scary face."

"Heh, I don't mind it Feria. The one at fault is Kent right? But you are not completely innocent cow milk demon."

I could feel a cold feeling on my spine. It is as if I feel a danger of my life.

"Miri, I just order a meal from Feria."

"That's true. I only deliver his meal. And calling me cow milk demon is terrible!"

Feria refutes while holding a tray on her hand and pressed it on to her chest. Aah, I want to be that tray.

"My master has fallen to the erotic cow milk demon venus flytrap."

The people who is chatting around the guild turn into silence when Miri said that.

“A…A…Ueee..!”

Feria raise a crying voice as it spreads like a buzz and create big ripples in the guild. They are all directing their gaze towards me. It was a gaze full of jealousy and looking at me with mercy. Don’t, don’t look at me like that.

Feria then tries to talk.

“At least, I can be your younger sister right Kent?”

“Impossible, I’m only 15 years old.”

Although I’m actually thirty five but 15 is my current self.

“Impossible, to know that much position at 15 years old.”

I become very embarrassed and don’t know what to say anymore. I start to eat my meal with a poker face to distract the crowd. However Feria keep pursuing on that matter.

“Miri, what do you mean by that?”

“He know ten or fifteen position.”

“That is amazing. He is different from what I think.”

“In the night, he is like a beast.”

I was choking when I heard their conversation. Really, for telling something like that in the public does Miri knows no shame?

“I couldn’t believe he is a beast with that face.”

“If I don’t experience it myself I wouldn’t imagine it too.”

“Stop!!”

Really, that was embarrassing. Once more silence fills the guild.

“Miri, that was embarrassing.”

“Aah, sorry, I didn’t mean it.”

After that Miri stands up and said to everyone.

“So, I want to tell you that Kent is my master so you can’t bully him. In particular the cow milk demon over there, hands off from him okay?”

The gaze then falls upon Feria. To be exact on her chest. It is certainly that it is tempting everyone who looked at her.

“Well, I won’t promise anything.”

“Now, everyone disperse.”

After that, people shifted their gaze and trying to act busy. After I finished my meal, we go towards Miri house.

Chapter 11 – Emergency

After finished eating lunch, we left the adventurers guild and began to walk towards Miri house. It is located at the ‘noble residences’ in the north side of the city.

When we left the ‘adventurer street’ and enter the ‘aristocratic street’ the differences is like heaven and hell. The road immediately widen and it was like the Beverly Hills road where celebrities live.

“You live in amazing place Miri.”

“Well, most of the time I am homeless though when taking request from guild. In another town, I also stayed in the ‘adventurer area’.”

“Well, is your parent’s home?”

“Ahahahahaha, oh, my stomach hurts!”

Miri laugh loudly as if asking about her parents is something funny.

“Ah, sorry Kent. I forget that you are a demi-human.”

“So, is succubus race doesn’t live with their parents?”

“Well, some stayed until they are adult but Succubus race considered an adult at twelve to thirteen years old age. There is also a curse that makes it really hard for us to make a family."

Miri said that with a lonely tone. As we all know, Succubus race are cursed with《 life absorption 》skill.《 Sexual prodigy 》skill can counter that but it was a rare skill.

So when encountering someone with《 Sexual prodigy 》skill, it was kind of the succubus race law to pledge their loyalty to them. It can be said that the Succubus race descendants will be relying on that master.

"I was so lucky to be able to find my master so soon."

When she said that, Miri face is blushing.

"I guess I have to do my best as your master then. So, there is nobody living in the house?"

"There is a maid that taking care of the house though."

A maid? The image of a maid in my mind is someone who is going to add ketchup on top of your omelet and write 'love'. She will wear a skirt as her deadly weapon, or maybe she will use her ultimate skill to ask 'what would you like master?'.

"So, what race did the maid come from?"

I tried to ask calmly while hiding my excitement.

“She is 35 years old and come from the demi-human race like Kent. She is also the one who teach me how to cook.”

Now, thirty five years old. Well, there is no rule that a maid have to be a young girl. No, oh no.

The cute image of a maid in my mind immediately replaced by an old woman.

It was an aunt with Osaka accent and laughing excitingly.

“I think she will be happy to see you Kent.”

“Uh, if you say so.”

The tension was high when I replied.

Before long, we have arrived at Miri’s house. It was a two story stone building. The size is pretty big with a garden and a pool. Really, Miri is quite an important figure here. Even if this town can be considered quite small but it was big.

We arrived at the door and Miri causally entered after opening the door.

“Annabella, I’m back.”

The entrance hall was bright from the lights hanging down from the ceiling. From the back, I can hear Annabella foot steps rushing.

Wait; what Miri tell me must have been a lie.

She said that the maid is 35 years old and the image inside of my head is an old aunt from Osaka.

How did I describe her?

She seemed to be only a little bit older than Miri. Her brown hair is combed neatly. Green eyes and thick lips are placed perfectly on her face.

“Miriaria-san, pardon my lateness. Is he a guest?”

Annabella said while giving a bow to Miri.

“Well, to put it correctly, he is my master.”

Once Annabella heard that she gives her apologies.

“Sorry, it was unexpected and I said some rude things. My name is Annabella and I am here as a maid of Miriaria.”

“No, you shouldn’t apologize to me. It was me who suddenly come without notice.”

“If you are Miriaria-san master then this house is as good as yours. To make up for my mistakes, please let me guide you to the living room and provide a drink.”

“Well, I remember we have a Nishiyon-nichi tea. Are you okay with it Kent?”

“Well, anything is fine.”

“Annabella, please guide Kent to the living room. I want to put my luggage first.”

Miri then went to the second floor.

“Kent-san, please follow me.”

I walked followed Annabella from behind. We move to the right hallway from the entrance and arrived at a living room. Annabella waved her hands to the sofa and said.

“Please wait here. I’ll serve the tea immediately.”

After giving a bow, she left the room.

Really, Miri is such an important figure here. The room is furnished with middle time’s European aristocratic mansion. The kind of decoration you can only saw on TV. There is also a decoration of full armor standing in one side.

Annabella came back not long after while carrying a tea in a tray.

“I don’t know if this suits your taste. I also bring some baked snacks that I made.”

She put the tea and the cookies on the table. The color of the tea is scarlet. I try to smell it, however I don’t know if it was a good tea or bad tea. When I take a sip, my mouth immediately feel refreshed.

“This is good.”

I also take some cookies and the sweet taste spreads into my mouth. I take a sip of the tea again and it really complimented each other. The sweet cookies and the refreshing tea combination is perfect.

“Annabella, it is really you who made this? It is good.”

“If you want, there is still some more in the back.”

She said that while smiling but then her expression turn serious.

“By the way Kent-san, I have something I have to ask.”

I wonder what this is about.

“Yes?”

“Is it true you have become Miriaria-san master? Then you must have the《 Sexual prodigy 》skill.”

“That is true.”

“Is that so? Do you know you might need another partner?”

What is this? Is she trying to hit on me?

“Well, it seems you didn’t know.《 Sexual prodigy 》skill need to be performed daily. If one failed to do this, the pent up desire might make the owner of the skill explode.”

What? I never heard of this before.

“I had an acquaintance once and…”

Is that the reason why I acted like a beast when ravaging Miri? Is that my pent up desire being released? As if she can read my thoughts Annabella asked.

“Can you remember your first night with Miriaria-san? What did you do that night?”

Anxiously, I tell her what happened.

“I did something terrible to Miri…”

“Kent-san. That is alright. After all Miriaria-san is someone from Succubus race. Now, you have become my master too; please call me if you needed help.”

Annabella then move her fist up and down as if she was holding something.

Wait. What does that mean? If《 Sexual prodigy 》not performed everyday, it will take a toll on my body and if Miriaria isn’t ‘available’, I can ‘use’ Annabella?

“Well, I appreciate it but what would Miri think?”

“I think it was okay. It’s just me taking care of Miriaria-san master health. Also you shouldn’t be worried, I’m ‘sterile’ so I couldn’t bear any child.”

“But, I…”

“Is my old body isn’t attractive enough for you?”

No, that wasn’t what I mean. Even I have a hard time deciding on where to look. At that time, the door to the living room is opened and Miri entered. She changed her clothes into a short pants and tank top.

“Annabella, what did you said to him?”

Miri threaten Annabella but she then moves closer to her and whispered something to her ear.

“What? Eh? Lie. I didn’t know about that. But thinking about it, father only has mother.”

“Ah, as my experience is still lacking, I wonder if you will accept Annabella to help out too.”

“As you are Miriaria-san master, I will also pledge my life to you Kent-san.”

Why did it escalate into this? Although I am happy to have two beautiful girl on my side but this is wrong. Won’t she just become a mistress?

“Kent, we will only help you relieve yourself from your《 Sexual prodigy 》skill.”

“Don’t I have the right to votes?”

“No!” Miriaria and Annabella said that together while sending a glare.

I can’t refuse. I don’t want to be killed by them. Of course Annabella body has a womanly charm, but I get worried about my future.

Chapter 12 - Magic City

After adding the maid as a prospect for my harem, I was thinking. I wonder if this is just a dream world. Because the real me is a hopeless middle aged man yet in this world I could easily earn woman affection.

After enjoying the tea and sweets made by Annabella, I asked Miri some more question about why this city is called「Magic City」.

The reason is, the「Sorcerers school」that studied healing elements in this town. In order to learn further, Miri suggested we visited her friend.

This「Magic City」is famous for treating injuries. Aside from the「Sorcerers school」,「Therapy House」and other facility managed by the magic institute is also present. If you look closer, lots of people is wearing robe. Among them,『Demon』race people with small horn on their forehead can be seen too.

After we walk for a while, we arrived at the「Sorcerers school」building. It is similar to a stone temple.

“Is that the Sorcerers guild hall?”

“Yes, my ancestor also takes part in building it. I you want to know about anything, just ask.”

“Oh…”

When we enter the courtyard, there are bronze statues lined up. There is a statue of Lefebvre,「Demon Race First Leader」. Those who inherit his blood are called『Demi-human』like me with black hair and eye as our main characteristic. However the rest of my race has black skin color accordingly.

The statues go on and there is also one from『Succubus』race. It wasn't human. It looked like a goat standing with its hind leg with a bat wings on its back. It didn't look like Miri at all.

We proceed to enter the building. It looks similar to university with small classroom on each side of the hallway. We enter one and five people are taking breaks sitting.

"Ah, it's Rina!"

Miri beckoned one of them. The one that is called come approaching us. She has silver eyes and hair, tied up in a ponytail. Her robe is one size bigger than her body and let loose to the ground.

"Miri Onee-chan!"

The Petite silver haired girl immediately dives into Miri chest. Miri seemed to spoil her a lot. However why her hand is moving dangerously on Miri chest?

"Onee-chan! Nee-chan! Muhaa."

After Miri felt that it was too much, she pushed Rina away.

“Rina, there is something important that I have to tell you.”

“What is it? Finally are you going to confess to me?”

Rina eyes that is fixated on Miri is sparkling. However judging from Miri expression, I am worried.

“The thing is… I have become a ‘property’ of this man, Kent.”

Rina frozen in place hearing Miri words. Like a robot, her neck twisted towards me with a ‘gigigi’ sound.

“Pleased to meet you, my name is…”

Before I finished introducing myself, a《Fireball》passes through near my ear and I can smell some of my hair is burnt.

“You! What have you done to Onee-chan?”

“Rina, please listen to me first. Stop this.”

Rina didn’t listened and tries to throw another magic towards me. Thankfully Miri is there to hold her back.

“Kill. Burn. Grind him.”

Although Rina is struggling trying to attack me, Miri strength is enough to hold her in place.

"I thought Rina will understand… If it's like this…"

Miri saying that in a sad voice,causing Rina body to trembles.

"Nee-chan, but this man is your 'owner'!" Rina then sends a glare at me.

Scary!

"To think that my beloved onee-chan will be taken from me. The chest that I poured affection to raise."

"I'm sorry Rina."

I can only apologize because of her threatening attitude.

Since Rina height is lower than Miri, her head is rested on Miri chest.

"This is my divine creation. Nee-chan breast that I painstakingly grow." Rina said that while fondling Miri chest.

Swish

Miri send a head chop towards Rina.

“Rina! How many times I have to tell you, don’t play with my chest!”

“Auuu! It hurts Onee-chan. Why can’t you accept my love?”

“Even though you are a member of the Sorcerers guild, your attitude hasn’t changed at all.”

Oh, Rina seemed to be an official member of the Sorcerers guild and not a student of the「Sorcerers school」. I wonder how old she is.

“Of course I have changed. I can properly introduce myself. My name is Lina Dorman, sixteen years old, demon of the『Rakshasa』.”

Rina do her self-introduction defiantly. 『Rakshasa』tribe characteristic is a small 『Oni』horn coming out from their forehead. Her silver eyes that turned red before is now colored clear blue.

“Are you someone from the『Forgotten』 race?”

“『Forgotten』 race? What is that?”

Rina crossed her arms while thinking.

“I can tell a person job and skill using my《Appraisal》skill. For you, to have four unique skills, and no job, I can’t think of other explanation other

Miri complexion changes after hearing that.

So she thinks like that because of the number of my unique skill. That《Appraisal》skill seemed to be handy.

“Kent, is that true? You have four unique skill?”

“Nee-chan. He has【Handsome】,【Well protected】,【Womanizer】and【Sexual Prodigy】. All of it is unique skill. It was rare to see someone with a unique skill and if you met one, he or she will have one at the most. If he has one, that is alright but he has four, four!”

While Rina explaining, yapping like a machine gun, I wonder if someone from『Forgotten』race has a lot of unique skill.

“Rina, can you tell me more about『Forgotten』race?”

Rina look at me with hostility when I said that. It is as if she will attack me the moment I shift my gaze from her.

“Rina, I want to know too.”

“Che, if it’s one-chan, I have no choice. Come with me to my laboratory.”

“Thank you.”

I followed behind her and Miri silently. When we arrived, she sit on the chair and followed by Miri and me.

“『Forgotten』race, to put it bluntly is not someone from our world【Grimoire】.”

I feel shocked hearing that sentence. Miri too is surprised.

“Rina! What the heck does that mean?”

“According to my research, unique skill acquisition is relying on job level. There are cases where someone born with a ‘gift’, but at that instant, he or she will get a job. Seeing that he didn’t have a job, I can only say that he is not born on【Grimoire】.”

Miri then asked me: “Kent is that true? I didn’t care but what about the others?”

It is a hard question to answer because without job, I can be said as unemployed. But that is the truth.

“Well, I don’t have one.”

“Bingo!” Rina then nods.

“By the way, isn’t this place is the game world of【Hunter Life】?”

“Speaking of【Hunter Life】... It was mentioned in a diary that is discovered hundreds of years ago in one of the『Forgotten』race diary.”

“Is that true? What does it said?”

Involuntarily I had grabbed Rina shoulder.

“This place is similar to Earth. However after many years since I came here, I don’t know how to【Log Out】. Is this place really inside the【Hunter Life】?”

Really, there are people like me that are transported to this world.

“So, what happened to the owner of the diary?”

“He has a fulfilling life as the founder of the Koch family.”

In other words, there is no way back to the real world. Although I expect to be transported, but this is...

“Kent... Are you okay?” Miri asks anxiously.

“Yes, I’m just shocked a little.”

I am transported, I am transported, but what happened to the ‘real me’ in the ‘other world’?

Miri then hugs me gently from behind.

“Kent, it’s going to be alright. I will protect you.”

“Thank you…”

Now I wonder what happened if I ‘died’. Will I be transported back? Or it will be ‘game over’?

I have to think realistically that from this day onwards,【Grimoire】is where I lived. I need to find a job and learn the writing here.

After filling myself with determination, I saw Rina infront of me.

“Miri, let us leave. Rina seemed to be busy.”

I stand up and Rina waves of murderous intent reached me.

“Well, this is getting late. Rina if you have time, you are welcomed to visit my house.”

“Onee-chan, just make sure that man didn’t tainted you.”

Rina, Miri is already…

Swish

Another《Fireball》flying and burned the other side of my head.

“You must be thinking of something indecent just now!”

Really, Rina is so scary. However today I learned something useful.

Chapter 13

What Rina said about transported into another world may be considered as punishment for some, but I didn't exactly feel that way. In this life, I have Miri as my lover, Annabella as my maid, what's more can I ask? I could say I didn't regret having come to this world. Since the sky is getting dark, we returned to Miri's house.

"This light is powered by magic stone. You can adjust the brightness."

After dinner, Miri take me to a tour around the house.

"This will be your room Kent."

My room is located at the second floor and right in the middle. The size is around thirty tatami. There is a king sized bed with canopy and table on both side. There is also a set of sofa and table. Of course this room is really large.

"This is my room?"

"I'm sorry, if you don't like it you can choose any other room. We could even change the furniture."

Well, this whole room even bigger than my house to tell the truth.

“No, I was just amazed at how good this is.”

“Ah, since this is my house, you can tell me anything else you need.”

After that, we resume the tour of the mansion. The second floor mainly consists of bedroom and guest room. Besides from mine and Miri, there are six other rooms and one that is used by Annabella. We head to the first floor. There is a living room, a guest room, a chamber for taking a meal. The chamber for taking a meal is huge with large table placed in the middle and twelve chairs surrounding it. We didn’t enter the kitchen though because it is Anabella sanctuary.

After finished touring the mansion I only have one question.

“Come to think of it, where is the toilet?”

“What is the toilet?”

Miri tilts her neck while asked.

“You know, restroom.”

“Oh, I will take you there.”

I’m glad the concept of toilet exists in this world. What’s more it’s the modern western style with a flush. So it seems that plumbing works are already being developed here.

“Then, do you want to see the bath?”

Uuh, just hearing her saying bath, I was too excited. I wonder what kind of baths exist in this world. Bubble? Steam?

“It might be too small for you.”

Miri said that while opened the sliding door. There is steam coming out from the hot water inside the bath. The water itself comes out from a fountain shaped as a lion’s mouth. You know, judging from the size alone, the size is as big as a public bath.

“The hot water is constantly supplied using magic tools powered by magic stone. So it can be used anytime.”

Hearing Miri words, I am so inspired. To be able to take a hot water bath anytime. Viva different world! I really feels like I’m living in a five star hotel. For Japanese that loved to take a hot spring bath (onsen) this feels like heaven.

“Miri, this is amazing. I’m glad I come to this world.”

“I’m glad it suites your taste Kent… well, how about we enter together after dinner?”

Eh?Together? Who? Me and Miri?

“What? Oh, yes.”

I replied involuntarily in surprise.

“Kent-sama, Miriaria-sama, dinner is ready.”

Anabella called from outside telling us that food is ready to be served.

“Kent-sama, after dinner, allows me to wash your body.”

It seemed that Annabella also heard what I’m talking with Miri.

“Eh, I also want to wash Kent.”

“Then, we can do it together. Two people will do it better.”

Anabella said that like dropping a bomb to my brain.

“Earlier, don’t you say that dinner is ready?”

Finally some words coming out from my mouth and we headed to the dinner room to escape from the grave situation.

When we arrived, variety of meals already lined up there. This is all cooked by Annabella. Amazing.

Stewed beans, rabbit meat soup, vegetable salad, roasted chicken, even bread and cheese spread. The desserts are also fruit looked like grapes. This is like a fancy medieval European meal however what this strange feeling is?

Ah, there is a chopstick in front of me. Usually this kind of meal is served with knife and fork as the utensils. Why is there a chopstick?

“Erm, why do we use chopstick?”

“Eh, Kent, do you prefer knife and fork?”

Miri asks while she already holds her chopstick.

“Not, this is fine. But why use chopstick?”

“I am just used to it. I have been eating using chopsticks from a long time ago.”

It is strange such a medieval themed setting uses chopsticks.

“I think this is spread by the『Forgotten race』, eat with chopsticks, scoop with a spoon and take a sip of soup from the bowl.”

Annabella replied anxiously: “is the bowl is too big for your mouth?”

“No, I’just feel a little lost here.”

I take a sip of the soup directly from the bowl, and it tastes good. The meat just melts in my mouth. Annabella cooking is amazing.

"This is delicious. Thank you."

"Ah, please have a taste of this too. This roasted chicken."

Annabella then hands me a portion of the roasted chicken. The skin has been burned to crisp and topped with chopped onion and potatoes. The gravy is from the onion too with spices added.

"Really, this is all delicious."

Anabella can only look at me with a smile as she served my meal. However this is awkward seeing me and Miriaria eating while Anabella standing there serving us. Anabella refused to eat with us saying that she is only a maid but she comply after we 'ordered' her to eat with us. Meal is more fun when you are eating with everyone.

Ever since my parents passed away, I never have a dinner with anyone else. To have dinner with someone, socializing, I forget that it is so fun.

Suddenly my eyes blurred.

"Kent, what is it? Is there something wrong?"

"Kent-sama..."

I am crying but this is full of fun and joy. If I didn't come to this world, I would have forgotten this feelings. The warmth of the people.

"No, I cried just because Anabella's cooking is too perfect."

"Kent, you are exaggerating it."

"Thank you for the praise."

After eating till full, my belly even bulged a little. Next is the bath time, however I feel sleepy because my stomach is full.

Chapter 14 – heavenly bath ※ splash

Water was poured onto my head. I felt the coldness when I tried to open my eyes. It was contrasted to the warm bath water. When I open my eyes, there is a naked woman. Green eyes, brown hair, and her eyes are watery.

Is that Annabella? I closed my eyes again just in case this is only my imagination.

I opened my eyes and she is still there. The figure of Annabella lay bare.

“Master, what are you doing?”

“I’m sorry, I’ll close my eyes.”

“I asked why you are closing your eyes. Do you ask for a beating?”

——

(Tl note: still remember this joke?)

“Captain, the enemy data is received. It is a battleship with D cup.”

“The death class D cup? Wait, the size of the barrel is approximately 70cm, the real firepower rivaling E class; it must be an E cup.”

“Captain, meanwhile you are fussing over the data, the enemy ship is approaching fast.”

“The ship is still accelerating, in this state we will come into collision.”

“Once we are hit at zero distance, our ship armor couldn’t hold back.”

I am afraid open my eyes, it was because Annabella is whispering to my ear while pressing her chest to me.

“Kent-san, I wonder if this feels good. But a little bit longer, you almost drown yourself there.”

“Captain, the hull is breached. The water is leaking into the ship.”

“The enemy has predicted our movement. We need to escape.”

“The enemy ship has hit us at zero distance, we need emergency escape.”

“We have nowhere to run.”

—-

Again Anabella whispered with an upset tone.

“Anabella, what are you doing?”

I, on reflex opened my eyes while facing to the side. Miri is standing there.

——

“Everyone that is still alive, status report!”

“Report captain, there is a G class ship!”

“I mean, the damage report.”

“Damage status, the engine is stopped thinking. The gun is almost letting out its bullets. The central compartment is flooding with libido. There is no other way to survive, we are surrounded by the enemy.”

———

In my surprise, Miri come to my side.

“Kent, are you really feel sleepy?”

She said that while clinging close to me. I can feel the soft peaches on her chest.

“I’m sorry, I really feel sleepy.”

“Well, I think it will be easier for us to clean Kent-san. Fufufu.”

“We can wash every nook and cranny easier indeed. Fufufu.”

My body is naked, lying in the ground due to my sleepiness. However the girls’ chuckle feels so scary.

I was carried to the washing place carried by the two like a cattle and placed at a stool.

(Tl note: someone is carrying the legs and someone carry the arms)

In front of me, the sight of Annabella kneeling is amazing. Her chest isn’t covered neither her lower body. Her body is slender without any excess fat. It will be very soft when I touch it.

“Sorry that my body isn’t good. It might even be a sore for your eyes…”

(Tl note: she must be feeling offended since he closed his eyes the moment he saw her, at the beginning of the chapter)

Well, I never said such things and if her body isn't good, half of the world women is going to cry.

"T-t-there is no such thing. Your body is nice."

Suddenly, Miri come from behind and hugs me. I can feel her peaches touching my back.

"Miri, what are you doing?"

"Me? I'm just trying to wash your back."

Ah, she was going to wash my back... EEh??

Annabella in front of me also start to make foam out of soap and spread it on her body.

"Kent-san, excuse me."

Annabella then washes my arm by burying it in the valley of her chest.

"Ah, Wait!"

Aaah… what is this feeling? It's very dangerous! Dangerous!

"A~un!"

Annabella also starts to moan.

"Annabella, you are cheating."

Miri then do a front flip from my back and in front of me suddenly two naked girl appear.

"Let us do the front together."

"I have no issue about that. But what about this part?"

Annabella hands then gripped something that she shouldn't.

That is bad! No touching!

"See, our little friend here is responding."

This is so embarrassing. I couldn't even fight back.

———

"Now, it is my turn."

Of course my lower half gets hard. After getting intense body contact with their peaches but I need to take control. I massaged Annabella chest until it is covered by bubbles and foam.

“Kent-san, Hau~”

After that I moved lower to her waist and hips. Although today is the first day I experienced soap land, but I do the reverse already.

I was excited and couldn’t get enough of this slippery feeling.

After Annabella covered in foam, my sight fell into Miri. I started directly to her chest and rubbed it hard. The size of her peaches is so big that it couldn’t fit my hand. In return I could press it hard.

“Hya… not so rough.”

Miri has a weak resistance towards it.

“It is impossible for me to stop myself.”

This is so good, I couldn’t stop.

After I regained my self-control, Miri is covered in foam. The three of us then cleaned our foam covered body with hot water, wash our hair and finally entered the bath tub.

Fuuh. As expected I am Japanese that love bath.

After that, the ladies left earlier while I am enjoying myself soaked in the water.

Upon exiting from the bath, I was given a pajama to turn into. I was getting out but I saw the two girls wearing nightgown. It was a see through one.

Miri then said while fidgeting: “Is it good if we continue?”

This is a sweet temptation that I couldn’t turn down.

【Sexual Prodigy】skills triggered.

Well, this I’m invitation from the teaser Is … Milly of the array of Australian skills triggered.

“Kent-san, I will also do my best to serve you if you allow me.”

Annabella is also saying that with courtesy but I can see her face is shining with expectation. Of course I don’t want to die just by tuning down their offer. There is no reason to turn it down in the first place.

I began to walk towards the bedroom with two girls in my arm.

Chapter 15: Possession ※

Author note: This is a continuation from last chapter mixed from Miri thoughts from the ‘first night’.

My body is stiff due to the tension…

Kent is sitting on the bed and he is looking at me directly. My skin is exposed because of the see through material. I couldn’t calm down knowing he can see through the negligee.

I wonder if Kent will see me as a disgraceful woman…

Anabella has joined us to nonchalantly. Somehow she is cunning.

“You girls dressed up like that for me… Miri, I’m happy.”

Hearing Kent words, my body becomes hot. Although it was embarrassing but it wasn’t unpleasant for Kent, I’m relieved.

I mean, after all I’m a ‘possession’ of my master. What to do if he resented me?

This also happened because of what Annabella said. I am really scared when hearing her explanation that everyday, Kent has to release his pent-up desire or he will die. If that really happened, if he died, I will died with him.

Thinking back, when the first night I was ‘connected’ with him, I was so afraid. I thought he will die because of me. Because of this cursed body.

If Kent no longer exist, there is no reason for me too. That is why I accepted Anabella to help. This is all for Kent’s sake.

It is good that she could help me protecting Kent but there’s also one thing that I’m worried about. Kent is like a flower, butterfly will followed him wherever he go.

Today, when Rina launch a《Fireball》at him, I even feel my killing intent soaring. Although she was like a sister to me, but thinking Kent is going to be harmed in front of me, I couldn’t hold myself back. I’m glad that Rina has information that he wanted, if not, I may have get rid of her.

“Miri, what are you thinking? Your face is so serious.”

Kent words bring me back to reality. That’s right, I should concentrate to serve him.

“Me? I was thinking on how to service you Kent.”

for now, I need to keep Kent feelings and conditions.

“Really? Thank you.”

After that, Kent jumped into action. I was taken first and I welcomed him. He was like a ferocious beast but I'm happy just because of his touch. My body, this is the best thing I can offer for him so he can stay alive.

Two girls are breathing roughly, on their body, there is a trace of action when I ravaged them here and there.

These girls, in order to prevent【Sexual Prodigy】skill from eroding my body; they offered their body as a detoxification medium. There is no way to express my gratitude with words.

The girls become the offering to the 'beast' inside of me. As atonement, at least I can wiped their sweaty and dirty body with a towel. After that, I give both of them a kiss on the cheek and hold them in my embrace as I go to sleep.

Chapter 16 - Road To Finding A Job

(Ps: the font issue may be because I was using free open office instead of normal office from microsoft. Please bear with it while I search for solution.)

When I wake up, Miri and Annabella is not there. I was filled with anxiety, did I do something wrong?

Doon

Suddenly the door is opened by Annabella.

“Kent-san, these are yours change of clothes.”

Anabella is standing there in his maid outfit. She brings a set of clothes in her hand.

“Do you need some assistance?”

Annabella tried to be calm saying that but I could see her cheeks are red. It also becomes embarrassing when I tried to look at her.

“It’s alright, I can change myself.”

“If you have changed, please come to the dining room. Breakfast is served.”

Annabella then leaves after bowing.

After I changed my clothes, I decided to checked the message log first.

I wonder why the【Handsome】skill isn't triggered. Did【Handsome】skill has a condition to be activated? As I think about that a Gurururu sound coming from my stomach can be heard so I walked towards the dining room to get breakfast.

Chapter 17 - Identification Card

After a while, even in this ‘noble city’, it was so hard to issue an ID card. We’re walking towards the city hall which is located on top of a small hill. Miri is now covered in blue knight’s clothing. Even though it’s called knight attire it is only a jacket and shirt with decoration that looks like school blazer uniforms. The color is navy blue skirt and white jacket. Miri skirt actually is a little too short. It was fluttering but I really can’t hold back the mood.

“Over there, is the lord’s castle.”

the direction which Miri pointed is several times bigger than her house. As expected of a castle.

The castle was located in a middle of a pond and the path is connected by a bridge. However when we’re in the middle of the bridge, we’re stopped by the guards.

“Halt there! May I know of your business?”

The guards asked with an air of dignity in him, he was different from the ones at the city entrance.

“Today we want to meet with the city lord and issue an identification card for my master.”

Miri also replied with chivalrous pride. Uuh, so cool, I still couldn’t believe she falls in love with me.

The guard then look at me with appraising sharp gaze.

“Hou, is this person is… the rumored?”

really, what rumor? Is it about the incident yesterday at the guild or what? However I can only nods lightly to respond.

“Now, please tell the lord that I’ve come. We will wait here.”

Miri suddenly issued an order to the guard and he was confused.

“Do you really need to visit the city lord to get an identification card?”

of course the guard face is troubled.

“He is the new master of my household.”

“Is that so?”

“Please, inform the city lord immediately.”

Miri right now couldn’t be refuted by anyone.

“Miri, I think asking the city lord just to make and identification card is unreasonable.”

“No way, it’s for my master.”

the guards on the bridge then asked the other man who seemed to be his subordinates to go in to the castle. After that, we’re asked to wait at a small waiting room next to the bridge.

“Miri, what kind of person is the city lord?”

“Hmm… my old household used to works for him. He is also the reason my household is able to climb up the rank.”

so, it was a superior and subordinates relationship.

“He informed me that he really want to see you.”

getting told that a man really want to see you didn’t make it any better.

“and why is that?”

did the city lord actually have a strange preferences and I might be a sexual harassment victim?

“It seemed that he is interested in you.”

No way…

quickly I feel anxious and feel insecure. Will I be able to go home safely?

After some time, the permission to come in was granted. Another guard lead us in and we enter the castle.

The entrance was profusely and overly long corridor. At the end, is where the lords office located. When the door is opened, I saw the city lords. His age should be around forty to fifty years old. His face is fearless like a warrior, full of pressuring air like heroes in fairy tale. However one thing I’m sure of, he is from the Ashura race, the war loving tribe. His six arm is the proof. When I was examining him, he also did the same.

The city lord come and asked: “is this the new head of the black dagger household?”

he keep on looking at me with harsh look and continue appraising me. The air is heavy, was it his pressure or his thirst for blood?

“P-P-Please to meet you, I’m Kent, a demi-human.”

he ignored my self introduction and glanced at Miri.

“Miriaria, are you sure you let him become the head of your household?”

“I appreciate for your concern but if it wasn’t him, there’s no one else more worthy.”

surely, Miriaria resolution is strong.

“You know, that black dagger you give him wasn’t something easy to handle.”

is the black dagger is the one Miriaria give to me when she pledged her loyalty?

The city lord examined me again.

“How can this spineless and weak man compared to the demon lord that you chose him over the demon lord? The black dagger, you’re really giving it to him?”

the city lord voice is loud enough to cause the walls tremble. But what’s more shocking is the truth of the anger. Miriaria is actually is a demon lord bride candidate.

“City lord, I have already declined to be the demon lord’s bride.”

“I know you don’t approve his way of ruling but…”

“It will be good if we end the discussion here.”

Miriaria looked at him with resolute expression.

“Right now, he already becomes my master. There is no question. He is my master.”

Miriaria voice is loud and clear. However I didn’t know her pledge of loyalty is actually such a big issue.

“I didn’t accept this. How can you serve this powerless man?”

at that moment, the city lord release such a threatening pressure. He spread his hand forward and the furniture around the area was thrown away from the force and he pounced towards me.

“Kent!”

at that moment I am afraid that Miri is already to late.

“Don’t underestimate me!”

the sound of two metal collided can be heard.

When I look closer, at Miriaria neck there is an almost invisible sword. Just a bit more it could pierced trough her neck.

If Miri is hurt…

suddenly my body feels heavy.

The silence only last for a minute before a guard knocked on the door and asked.

“Master, has something happened?”

“Nothing, you can go away. Although your form is still in a mess, I couldn’t imagine you really come to protect this boy. And how can you look at me with hateful eye?”

“If you make another move, I won’t forgive you uncle Arbalest.”

if I look closer, Miri is also holding a black weapon aimed at his heart.

“Miri! Do you are intending to kill me?”

“You’re asking for this yourself.”

wait, wait, I’m at a lost him. Uncle? So the city lord is her relatives? Ugh my head hurts.

“I just want to take a look and test my cute niece but actually I almost got killed. Hahaha.”

they put away their weapon and the city lord come to give me a handshake.

“Ah, you really caught me by surprise there Miri.”

I couldn’t take it in and even when we’re shake hands, my hands are trembling.

“So, this is all an act? Even about the demon lord bride?”

“Of course that’s true. The current demon lord is captivated by Miri beauty.”

“Uncle, don’t say anything strange to Kent! Master, there’s no such thing.”

“And, what about the black dagger? Is it okay for me to have it?”

“Ah, you’re quite smart. You don’t have to worry. It’s just that you’re become the head of our household.”

“It was a lie Kent. There’s no such thing like the demon lord bride. I was only a candidate so there’s no relationship between us. Kent, believe me.”

however, it was too much shock for me.

“So, Miri actually can be a royal family if she becomes the demon king bride. How can you throw away such chance for me?”

“Kent… you really care for me?”

how can she turned the air into lovey dovey in an instance.

“I’m just following my heart.”

when Miri said that, I know that I have to put more effort to be someone worthy for her.

“Hohoho, so your reason to come today is to get an identification card right? Don’t worry I’ll take care of it.”

the city lord said that without even giving us a chance to reply. I of course wanted to refuse, I don’t want to trouble him but Miri just shook her head while looking at me.

I was taken to another room. The room doesn’t have any window and only same pale light emitted from the magic circle written on the floor.

“This is the ritual to register yourself.”

the city lord then put his hand on a black stone pillar in the middle of the room. Green light is emitted from it and a screen similar to my status window appeared.

“Kent, don’t worry this is only an appraisal stone. You just need to put your hand.”

after that, my appearance and status is displayed on the screen.

Name: Kent

Race: Demi-human

Age: 15

Combat job: –

General job: –

“How can my future nephew doesn’t have any job?”

hearing that, the city lord couldn’t hide his shock.

“What? So, you’re not someone from this world?”

“City Lord, I decided to live in this world so this is my home now. That’s why I want to register myself.”

“Good, good, I appreciate your spirit. Hereby, I Arbalest Hyodo giving him authority as a resident.”

After that, the room was filled with light and not long, a business card like card appeared. Looking at the card, Miri is surprised.

“It’s a red card!”

“Eh, how can an unemployed get a red card?”

“This is the first time I saw a red card.”

“Me too.”

seeing them both shocked, I was confused.

“Is this something bad?”

to my question, uncle Arbalest grabbed my shoulder.

“You know, red card means you are able to take unlimited number of quest.”

after that they explained to me about the identification card. Identification card is divided into five colors. Black, green, blue, purple, and red. The color signifying the number of quest they could take at the same time. Black is 3, green is 6, blue is 12, purple is 24, and red is ∞. from what I heard, there is no limit to red card holder and there’s only a really small amount of people who have red card. Is this another cheat? Getting a red card while being unemployed, even getting the black card is alright since I have no quest. There is less than 1% population have purple card, green and blue around 2-5% and black is 70% while red is less than 0.1%. some known figure having a red card is the black dragon king Faburanov and Clade from demon lord army. In other world, this is rhea (rare).

“It seems that my master is really amazing.”

“I didn’t hate that feeling but I’m still don’t have a job.”

however suddenly the card seemed to be sucked in to my body.

“Eh, the card!”

I was panicked.

“Don’t worry, you can take it out using your consciousness. Look.”

Miri showed me what to do and her card is shown. It was purple card.

Miri is probably also a cheat character in this game… well I don't really care and tried to take out my identification card. Ah, it came out. It was a red floating card on top of my hand.

"With this, the registration finished."

Arbalest declared and then a log window popped up.

〗 You have been registered as a resident of the demon kingdom

〗 You have earned a job as citizen

〗 1 skill point acquired

〗 as a job correction, a small amount of stamina is added

I earned a job and I earned my first skill point. Right now I open my status in a hurry. The status window color also has been changed to red.

Finally I got a job! Even though it's only a citizen but it's still a good step. It’s better than unemployed. After that we bid farewell to Arbalest and leave the castle.

Chapter 18: Shopping!

After leaving the castle, the next thing we're going to do is shopping. We headed west and arrived at the 'shopping district'.

There were stalls selling food, miscellaneous goods, even shops selling weapons, armors, blacksmithing and looked like a modern 'mall'. For now, we stopped by at a clothing store because Miri said that she wanted to buy me some more clothes.

It seemed like Miri used to come here since the elder woman who work here greeted her.

"Miriaria-san, how can I help you today?"

"I want to buy some clothes for this man."

After that Miri introduced me to the shopkeeper. When I was still talking with the shopkeeper, Miri already jolted off and ransacked the store.

"Kent, I think this will look good on you."

It was a shirt with a white collar that even looked too formal if you wear it to go to school. What's more the materials it made from was like a combination of silk woven together, made it glossy yet somehow synthetic. But no matter what it looks really expensive. It wasn't something that could be worn everyday.

"Well, I think that's a little too much."

“How about this one?”

The next clothes she picked was a tuxedo. There’s no way I’m wearing it as my regular clothes.

“How about choosing something more casual?”

I searched on my own and found a blue shirt. It was a simple one without any decoration and more importantly, this was cheap and it doesn’t matter if it becomes dirtied. We decided to buy two shirts but Miri looked unhappy while handing it to the shopkeeper.

“Really is it alright to buy such cheap clothes?”

Of course I couldn’t wear the clothes that she picked for me since it was not suitable for everyday wear.

“It will be 1 silver and 4 copper.”(shopkeeper)

“Can you deliver the clothes to the mansion?”(Miri)

“Yes, we can do that. Thank you for your patronage Miriaria-san.”(shopkeeper)

“Well, I can carry the luggage you know.” (Kent)

However Miri left the shop while the shopkeeper deeply bowing.

I wondered, will she really deliver such cheap clothes to the mansion? I felt like Miri was a regular costumer here, or more like a celebrity. However, I still don't know how much is 1 silver and its monetary value. If I followed Miri way of shopping, I think it will be dangerous since I don't have any money and don't know how much I can earn.

Next, we're visiting the necessity shop.

"Miri, what are we going to buy next?"

"Hmm.. some textbook, blackboard and chalk for you to practice writing."

we visited a general store. There were many things cluttered here. Pot, shovels, tableware, there were everything you need clumped together. Miri asked them to take out a black board but I was surprised that it was only as big as a notebook. I guess paper in this era is still a luxurious things so I will start learning on this hand-sized blackboard. After that, she also chose some textbook and gave it to me.

"Alright, I think that's all."

"What are we going to buy next?"

"Hmm.. probably some weapons and armor for Kent. Oh!! I can't believe I forget it. Kent, come with me. This is important!"

After that, Miri came out from the store while pulling my arm. I couldn't believe my eyes when we arrived at the shop.

It was a lingerie store. On the side, colorful women's underwear were displayed neatly. It was a good place to shop, but I'm a man!

"Kent, how do you think about this one?"

Miri already picked out a lingerie. It was a micro lingerie. With such underwear, what's the point of wearing it? It doesn't even able to cover the important place!

"Well, just tell me your opinion."

Miri saw the answer from my reddened face. If Miri wears it, I don't have self-confidence that I will be able to keep the 'beast' inside me.

"Ehehehe, alright then I'll take this."

Miri then asked the clerk for a size that fits her. Really, this was already stimulating for me.

"Kent, it seemed like they have one of my size."

Miri came and told it to me with a cheerful expression.

"Is that so? That's good."

Oh no, my mouth! What are you saying? Of course it's bad! Ah, no, I already lost to my lust.

"Next, I need to get one for Annabella. Hmm.. I wonder which one is good? Ah, this see-through one is good."

(Tl note: just a reminder the next chapter isn't the 'mealtime' yet hahaha)

Chapter 19: Teacher Miriaria

(Give thanks to M.C, E.S, and I.R for the support in this chapter. Many many thanks and wish you all the best)

After finished shopping in the shopping district, we had lunch at a nearby place and when we got back to the mansion, I decided to immediately start to study. The one who will be teaching me is Miri.

Miri asked me to get my blackboard and chalk and I am waiting for her in the study room. I do what she asked me to, books, chalk, and the blackboard were already lined up on the desk and I'm waiting for her.

Since she didn't arrived, I decided to flick through books and textbook however I couldn't even understand the writing that looked like wriggling earthworms.

Has Miri finally came?

"Please enter."

The one who came inside was Miri. She wore a black glasses, combined with white frilly blouse, and tight black skirt that was so short. The blouse couldn't contain her enormous chest and her blonde hair tied in a ponytail.

Even when I examined her from head to toe, this time her bat wings doesn't exist. Maybe this wasn't Miri, this was just someone similar.

"Erm… Miri, what happened to your wings?"

"Insolence! You should call me Miriaria-sensei Kent!"

She seemed to be engrossed into her role of a teacher. Right now she had turned into blonde teacher with dynamite body. How am I supposed to concentrate when you wear such daunting clothes? What ever, let's just play along with her.

"Miriaria-sensei! I have a question, what happened to your wings?"

"Oh, I just used magic to hold it in. because I can't wear this outfit otherwise."

"Is that true? I never heard of something like that from you before."

"The succubus wing, Ashura six arms, all can be drawn back to the body using magic. Now, it's time to you for studying Kent."

Miri also explained about uncle Arbalest from the Ashura race. I don't know if she purposely mentioned him.

"It seems like Miriaria really is a smart person and suitable to be a teacher. Why don't you enrolled to be a teacher in an academy?"

"No Kent, seriously I'm glad you said that but I will only teach you."

Then Miriaria-sensei returned to her cold strict attitude.

The first learning was the letter of this world because I had no trouble in speaking. So we will begin to learn the characters. This world seemed to have the general alphabet , like A, B till Z.

“Well, let’s start with the letter A.”

When Miriaria wrote the letter A, I had a deja vu that I’ve seen it somewhere before. Ah, it really seemed like the character A in the real world however the lines are wriggling. After that, I followed what Miriaria displayed and write it on my blackboard.

“Kent-kun, you did it wrong. The bottom line should be longer.”

After that Miriaria showed me how to do it once again and I used a simple cloth to erase my previous writing. Carefully I did it again.

“Miriaria-sensei, is this correct?”

“Excellent Kent. I wonder if sensei should give you a reward?”

That was unexpected, a reward. Uhm, would it be some special class of physical and health education? It was to be expected right? I looked at Miri’s body that was taunting in that tight fit clothes and swallowed my saliva. In the AV there are many situation like this, and the title will be “Special Lesson with Miriaria-sensei”. My mind was now wandering around and lost in my delusion.

“Kent-kun, should we cancel the reward then?”

“Miriaria-sensei! How about we have a ‘special’ lesson?”

“Well, we still have studying to do.”

of course I interpreted it in my own way, that we can do it after we are finished.

After that, we continued to the letter I. Again, it was similar to the I in the alphabet. Followedb by u, e , o, and after that the whole alphabet. Miri corrected me a few times but after that I can already write it perfectly. It was pretty simple after that we moved to the number which used Roman numeric. When you already understand the logic behind it, it was much easier to understand the writing of this world.

“I…Miss…You…”

“Eh, what?”

Miri read what I wrote and was surprised.

“Eh, is there something wrong with my writing?”

“no, I was just surprised. Is this really your first time writing ? You must be a genius.”

I was delighted seeing Miri surprised so I continued to write longer sentences.

Combining writing and number, I wrote the date of today completed with month and years. After that, I continue to write until the sky turn to dark.

“I couldn’t believe it that in half a day you have mastered on how to write.”

“No, it was just that the writing was similar so I can do it just fine.”

However I was disappointed that the extra health and physical education class wasn’t going to be done. I was feeling a little regrettable that I can learn the writing easily.

“Miriaria-sensei, thank you very much for today.”

I had finished the lesson for today thanks to her and I am now checking my windows log.

〗 Reading comprehension completed: Westron writing acquired.

〗 Document creation skill unlocked.

〗 Job level up: Citizen Lv 1 → Lv 5

〗 Skill points, 4 points acquired

I really got level ups so it was possible to earn experience points by studying?

It seemed like every time a job level up I will earn one skill point. Since I got enough skill points, the skill menu windows is now unlocked. It was dark black and couldn’t be opened but now I can access them.

There are two skill that is available to be acquired. So I checked out the skill description first.

Document Creation Lv 1

It is possible to create documents necessary for documents writing. Increased your grammatical strength.

Cost to acquire: 5 Skill points.

Bed Technique Lv 1

Amaze your partner with a decent technique. 10% affection increase when activated.

Cost to acquire: 5 Skill point.

right now I only have 5 skill point so I have to choose between the two of them. However no matter how you looked at it,【Bed Technique】was a trap skill. There is no way I'm choosing that skill.

I was about to close the【Bed Technique】description window when accidentally I clicked on the acquire button. Oh no! WHY??

(Tl note: accidentally. Yeah…)

〗【Bed Technique Lv 1】acquired

〗 Job acquired『Gigolo』

〗 1 Skill point earned

〗 stamina is increased as a bonus of the new job

No way!『Gigolo』!! and more stamina! Does it mean that I can now go on at it longer?

Ah, Wake Up Me! How can I acquired the trap skill and acquired a shady job? It was already embarrassing enough that my lust was not controllable. Added with my new job, this is a big shame.

Chapter 20: The maid melancholy ※

(Tl note: since the last chapter was sponsored so this is a little bonus from me ^^)

(Tl note: the sponsored TDADP will come out tomorrow since I can't finish it today. My internet is down for half a day today >.<)

"Annabella, please take that and give it to Kent."

When we finished bathing, Miriaria asked Annabella to give the underwear to me. Yesterday, they wore a see-through negligee so this time I was rather calm.

I was asked to help her put the underwear on.

I don't know why but seeing her in underwear was more exciting than seeing her naked. The parts that was hidden by the cloth was tempting. And her perfect curves was really the envy of many woman.

(Annabella PoV)

I worked at a brothel when I was twelve years old. After that I found a good man and get married at the age of twenty. Although I had many experience, this is the first time I wore such sexy lingerie. Is this something that we needed to do because master Kent was still young?

When we met for the first time, he gave a different impression to me. It was unusual given due to our age differences. However I was attracted to him. Without any other thoughts, I also wore the new underwear that was given to me. Because my chest was on the large side, it was a little bit embarassing, some of it wasn't hidden and covered. But, I have to do this. My dead husband had a debt to Miriaria-san's family and it is my duty to repay the favor. Let's do our best because above all this was for master Kent's own good.

"Miriaria-san, let's wait for master Kent in the bedroom."

"All right, let's just wait in the bedroom."

After that I followed Miriaria-san. I believe that I was smiling, indeed my body and mind had fallen for master Kent, because I was always smiled when my husband was still alive. No, I'm doing this to help master Kent so his【Sexual prodigy】skill won't corrode his body..

I also have【bed technique】and【servicing】. I am determined to serve master with all my heart.

However yesterday, my【bed technique】and【servicing】didn't affected him. That was the first time I felt a shade of anxiety.

When I was at the brothel, I met a lot of men. Various gentlemen, the riches, powerful and influential people but no one can be compared the master Kent. In front of him, all my confidence of my experience and skills were destroyed. In front of him I felt helpless like an innocent kitten.

I don't have any excuses anymore. Maybe this was because it's been a long time since I've done it. However, master Kent age was more appropriate to be my son. How can this happened to me? Feeling like this with someone younger, I am a disgraceful woman.

All of that thoughts disappeared along with Kent-sama's touch on my body. Even in the morning I still felt it lingering on my skin. Because of that, I couldn't even face him straight and I was embarrassed when I saw him in the morning.

After that I fainted, after receiving his love, I passed out, but before that I also saw Miriaria-san was given such treatment. The two of them were going at it passionately.

Really, master Kent【sexual prodigy】skill was unfathomable. The limitless libido, the young energy, I feared that I will not be able to live without master Kent.

However, I'm just a maid in this place…

……

Today, when I went to the master bedroom, Miriaria-san was a wearing black glasses that she used in the afternoon.

"Annabella-san, today you have to call me sensei."

it semed like Miriaria-san enjoyed her experience from the afternoon and decided to do a role play.

"Then, will you be my okaa-san for today?"

(Tl note: it means mother..)

"Okaa-san?"

"That's right! Today I'm going to do it with 'sensei' and 'okaa-san'."

Ah, I couldn't believe that my delusion was becoming a reality. Hearing master called me mother, I had a weird emotion bursting forth from my heart. My passion was also lit up. I realized that I have fallen for master. Really I'm a bad maid.

Master Kent was looking at me with lecherous eyes, he told me that I am a beautiful MILF.

I don't care anymore,【bed technique】and【servicing】I will use it all for master.

I also decided that I have to do more effort for master. Taking care of my skin and body were a must. The next time I get paid I will buy some cosmetics. I will also need to exercise to prevent my chest from being sagging. I wonder how long since I had felt like this.

The beautiful underwear, the sight of Miriaria-san and master Kent making out.

Really, tonight was fantastic. The underwear on their body was enticing my mind. Under Miriaria-sensei and Annabella okaa-san, the role playing arousing me even more. Looking at the two naked girls asleep because of exhaustion, I smiled and feeling pride.

Tonight my job『Gigolo』went up to level 3.

I kissed both of them, wiped their body to clean it and went to sleep with the both of them in my arms.

Neta Chara Chapter 21: Sparta instructor

“Why? How can this happened? I have already taught you properly!”

“What? I can’t even understand a thing!”

The one who was standing in front of me is a petite girls with silver colored twin tails and carrying a small black stone. Yes, it was Rina.

“How can I understand what happened to the black stone?”

“How many times I’ve to tell you that this is a verification stone?”

“Ah, sorry.”

Somehow Rina seemed to have an enmity against me since our first meeting.

“Rina, can you please talk softer to my owner?” Miri face looked as if she has drank something bitter.

“Onee-san, it’s this guy’s fault!”

in the morning I asked Miri to tell me about skill and job. However Miri called Rina instead as my teacher. Lina himself come with great glee from Miri call but once she understood the reason she was called, she become a rough and spartan tutor. I already asked Miri to teach me but this was what she said: “Kent, you need a better teacher since you are genius.”

it was the doom that I brought to myself since I showed her my language knowledge.

Since Rina was someone who was acknowledged as the ‘God hand’, that’s why Miri decided her to be my tutor.

“Alright, one more time! What is this?”

Rina who has been holding the black stone, slowly turn it into a faint red color. Really, the pressure was too great until I swallowed my own saliva.

The punishment if I answered wrong was a《fireball》that was grazing past my head. Although Rina had promised Miri not to hurt me but still this was bad for my heart.

“This red color, ability verification stone?”

“that’s right..”

“I’m correct?”

Rina looked at me with disgust even if I answered wrong. I wonder what was my fault?

“Tch, you’re only lucky. What is this?”

this time the stone let out a green emission.

“Job verification stone?”

Rina then gave me a dour face. Gosh, I made a mistake?

“How can you don’t know this! Even a five years old child know about this!”

this time I was slapped in the face.

“Listen again. This is the last time I’ll tell you.”

Rina then begun to describe each one of it again.

“The verification stone can be used to check job, skill, age, gender, race, job, level, even various information and it’s all depended on the color of the verification light. You also have to be able to check other information and be wary of「bandit」,「bounty」, and「criminal」status. Do you get it?”

“Well, why?”

Rina then looked at me with menacing eyes.

“You idiots! They are thieves, criminals, if they are trying to go into a city they will be arrested by gatekeeper. And what if you’re with them?”

Oh, certainly that will be a bad thing.

“So what happened just in case I acquire that status?”

“For minor crime you can use gold to redeem yourself or repent for your mistake as timed slave. If it was a serious time you might be executed. So that’s why you should avoid those with 「bandit」,「bounty」, and 「criminal」 status. Even just come into contact with them may cause you to afflicted with it.”

Rina then continued to explain it.

“Next is the ability verification skill. It will show your general skill and combat skill. This is oftenly checked when you are trying to get a job or quest. They will see if you indeed have the skill needed for employment.”

this is kind of background check and to prevent spoofing when trying to find a job. I guess finding employment in this world is as hard as it was in real world.

“For now I have understand ability verification skill. Next please.”

“Next is job verification. Like I said before, every resident of ‘Grimoire world’ have an occupation the moment they are born. The basics of it was 「villager」,「civilian」,「nobility」 and 「royal blood」. Usually their level will increase along with your age.”

Well right now I’m a LVL 5 「citizen」 which means I’m only worth as much as a five years old children.

“Even if your job increased or changed, your basic occupation will never be able to be changed. Even if you go to job changer, you can’t delete it.”

ah, since most people have black card, that means they can only get two other job.

(Tl note: this also cleared up the misunderstanding that the number of job/occupation our MC can have is indeed limitless.. and this info dump… my brain!!!!)

"So do you understand now, your 'red' card will be the envied of 'black' card holder? In fact even Miri onee-san will be envious of you. Ah, the talk has been derailed. Next is race locked job. Some race have their own specialized class. Demi-human 「Mystic」 , Elf 「Element master」, dragon race 「Dragon warrior」, ashura race 「six sword master」, beast race 「Beast fighter」, dream race 「Night assassin」, and giant 「Warlock」 are the example. This jobs can only be acquired by someone from their race and it also have a strict requirement to have. "

Ah, this was discrimination!

"Because of that, the normal job also didn't lose is importance. We have 「general job」 and 「combat job」. As it name implies, general job is something that does not engage in combat. Mainly 「worker」, 「farmer」, 「blacksmith」, 「shopkeeper」, 「secretary」, 「architect」 and various other job."

each job also have status correction so I know how important it is to choose one that is suitable for you.

"next is combat job. It is for someone who engaged in combat and need to be chosen carefully. 「warrior」 ,「swordsman」,「scout」,「hunter」, 「magician」,「sorcerer」, 「therapist」,「healer」 are some that is included in it. And for those who doesn't have combat job, fighting monster is the same to suicide."

Ah, is that the reason I wasn't able to do anything in front of the silver mantis? If I wanted to be strong, I need to acquire a combat job.

"Next is job level. Every action you do, work, combat, magic training or anything corresponding to it will add experience. And every time you level up you will gain 1 skill point. For 'red' card holder like you, the level cap will be LV100 however it was such a hard thing to do and those who made it, is the world top three. Well, most of the time the limit couldn't be reached just as your age grow."

"So, there is still a possibility to reach it?"

"Even if you have 'red' card if you didn't work hard, you're even useless than a 'black' card. You can't even fight alongside Miri right now. Finally the skill. There is also general skill and combat skill. Each skill has their own condition before being triggered and if the condition isn't fulfilled it won't be activated."

Right now, Rina was looking at me with【Appraisal skill】activated.

"This fool you use your precious skill points to acquire【Bed technique I】. do you think this is just a game? And by the time the skill leveled up, the more point you needed and you used it on trivial skill."

"I'm sorry. It was an accident."

"Well, that's not my problem! I'm only here to explain it to you."

this was bad, she hates me more and more. And my【handsome】skill apparently didn't affected her. In fact I was affected by fireball syndrome because of her.

"last question, do you have a job you want to have?"

Lina asked with a bridge formed in between her eyebrows.

"That's a hard question. It might be「warrior」or「sorcerer」. That job might be able to help me later."

Rina was unexpectedly surprised hearing my serious answer.

"Well, try to surpass me or Miri onee-chan? Haha."

after that the windows opened automatically.

〗 Job level up: Citizens LVL 5 → LVL10

〗 5 skill points acquired

ah, thanks to Rina class my job level up a lot. Now time to get【Document Creation I】that I failed to acquire yesterday.

Then a message saying "adjusting language" could be seen. Some of the writing also has been converted into hiragana display while some remained in Roman alphabet. It became much easier to read and as the level went up it might become more easier. Also when I wrote words in hiragana, it was automatically converted into roman alphabet. Such a useful and practical skill.

knock knock after that Anabella came in and tell us that dinner was ready. Since we started from early morning, I am starving already and it seemed that Rina was going to join us for dinner.

“Rina-chan thank you for today. I was able to be taught by the famous ‘god hand’ and survived. Thank you.”

“Let’s go onee-chan!”

Rina then pulled Miri while ignoring me. She seemed to be very happy when comes to physical contact with Miri but it was only the start to a tragedy.

Neta Chara Chapter 22: Scourge

Today dinner had a new addition rather than the usual three people. It was Rina that was my natural enemy which caused me to have fireball syndrome.

Rina's favorite food was sausages and thinly sliced fried potato chips. Furthermore today we also have some fruit wine instead of regular alcohol drink. It was made from fermented fruit and had a sweet taste that was popular for women.

From earlier, Rina had opened a bottle and drank it all down.

"Onee-chan, why? Why did you choose him as your master?"

it seemed that her behavior had been affected by the alcohol.

"Have you fall for his trap? Why you didn't noticed my love?"

"Rina, have you been drinking?"

Annabella asked worriedly as Rina fumble and landed on Miri chest.

"Onee-sama chest is one of the best. It should belong to me. Only to me."

It seemed that Rina had completely entered drunk mode.

As she got up, she immediately casted《fireball》. Surely if it hits I will be bursting into flames.

“Hey you!”

Rina approached me and grab the nape of shirt. Her face coming close to me and I could see myself reflected on her eyes. Pink cheeks and Rina face were also beautiful with breast that isn’t losing to Miri or Annabella. Although she was pretty short but still she was a beautiful girl… but that fireball..

“What is it?”

Rina is acting funny right now. Maybe she really did drink too much.

“Rina, are you okay? Did you drink too much?”

“ah… I need to calm down.”

Rina then let me go and walked towards Miri. Her face was now really red.

“Onee-sama, Onee-sama, Onee-sama!”

Rina then wobbly put her face on Miri’s chest.

“Rina…”

“This is mine! This is mine! This is mine!”

obviously Rina is very drunk by now.

“Annabella, I think you should take Rina to calm down.”

“You! What are you saying?”

unsteadily, Rina turned towards me and another fireball was launched.

Ugh!

The smell of burning flesh was rising on the air. Really, this time the attack landed. The pain spread as my skin and flesh were burned. My HP bar was reduced by half.

“Ah!”

the girl’s breath was stopped for a moment. While Rina body was shaking.

“This is your fault! Your fault!”

Rina then shouted and turned frantic. Miri on the other hand approached me in a rush and casted《heal》on me.

“Kent! Are you okay? Hang in there!”

Miri was crying as if she was afraid of something. The pain gradually reduced as my skin was healing. Anabella on the other hand took off my remaining clothes.

“I’m sorry.. I’m sorry.. I’m sorry.”

Rina was trembling and curled up in the corner and like a broken tape recorder playing words of apology. Her eyes were empty.

“Rina, up to this point I have been holding back but what you did today is unforgivable. One wrong step and Kent life would be in danger.”

Hearing Miri’s words, Rina’s body shook greatly.

“Miri onee-sama… really it was an accident.. hyi!”

“Miri, I’m good now after you healed me.”

“Kent, what are you saying? You are almost dead!”

Miri was staring at my face with disbelieve.

“That’s not good Kent-sama. She need to learn her place!”

even Annabella was shouting right now. She also seemed to be angry. Annabella then whispered something to Miri and she noded.

“Rina, do you want to killed Kent?”

“That… I want to kill him! I want to erase him without a trace.”

“It will be the same as killing me.”

Rina then looked down when she heard that.

“I’m sorry. Please forgive me onee-sama. I don’t really want to do that.”

Rina then apologized deeply until her head touched the floor.

“Even if I accepted your apology, how can I let someone who tried to assassinate the black dagger’s master get away?”

Rina then tried to appeal to Miri.

“No, really it was an accident! All the things I said was a mistake”

“Miri, don’t do that!”

a mere one or two shots of fireball was really dangerous but what happened to Miri happiness was more important. I don’t want to see Miri killing someone.

“Rina, you should be grateful because of Kent’s magnanimity. If not you will be dead by now. Why don’t you offer your body to him as an apology? Be his sex slaves or you can try to kill me in a fight to death.” Miri said that in a pressuring tone.

“Miri, I’m okay. I’m sure Rina did that not on purpose.”

this time I felt sorry for Rina. Being forced to choose between sexual slaver or death was bad.

“Kent, be quiet.”

Miri’s words were cold and indifferent. As she said the death verdict once again.

“choose, death or become a slave?”

at this point, Miri’s dagger was already placed on Rina’s neck.

“Onee-sama, please forgive me. It was an accident.”

Rina answered while crying.

“Which one?”

But Miri was ruthless.

“If…I have to choose… slave… I’ll become Kent sex slave. I’ll give him my body.”

Miri kept on pressing the issue.

“Tonight we will suppressed Kent’s【sexual prodigy】side effect. You will participate in it and you have to be able to satisfy him.”

at that declaration, Rina broke down.

How did this happened?

Three women are going to wash my body in the bath. They were not wearing even a single piece of clothes to hide their body. Miri, Annabella and Rina. Rina petite body was placed on my right shoulder and she was using her tongue to lick the trace of wound that she caused. It was hard to held back the feeling as I embraced her body.

“You, why did you suddenly hugged me?”

Rina immediately tried to cast a fireball but stopped by a pendant that looked like a silver medal. It was a magic tool called ‘magic sealing pendant’. It was a tool created in order to seal the wearer’s magic power. For my own safety, it had been attached to Rina by Miri. Thanks to that I don’t have to be worried about that fireball syndrome anymore.

Rina without her magic power was only a petite powerless girl. Free to be trampled over.

“Rina please do your job!”

with that words from Miri she replied: “Miri onee-sama, I understand.”

Rina’s body touched mine as she washed my body but honestly there was still a gap of volume between her and Miri and Annabella. Her’s were still growing but I don’t really hate it.

“You know I’m only doing this so I’m not killed by onee-sama.”

Rina said that impatiently and resumed her job.

“Miri, I think this is enough already. I don’t really hate her.”

“Kent, you are too gentle. You were nearly killed by her so of course this is her punishment.”

“Onee-sama…”

Miri didn’t even allowed Rina to speak anymore as it will make her feel bad.

“Firstly, let’s soak in the bathtub first so we won’t catch a cold.”

in accordance to Annabella recommendation, we entered the bath and cleaned our body.

“As usual, the bath is good.”

on my left and right side, Annabella and Miri were sitting. On top of my outstretched legs, there was Rina.

“Do you feel forced to be my sex slaves?”

I asked Rina but she didn’t replied.

“Fool! I’m only here because of onee-sama. I will only helped you to relieve your【sexual prodigy】side effect. But also this is my first time.”

“Ah, is that so? She sounds determined but Kent-sama if you want, Miriaria and me are willing to serve you with all our body and will be better.” as she said that, Annabella face was full of determination. After all Miri and Annabella had dedicated their lives to me.

“Well, Rina is also good.”

“That’s right, Rina you have to pledge yourself as Kent’s sex slave.”

Hearing Miri’s words I really felt sorry for Rina. At first place she was only here because Miri asked her to be my tutor but after some incident now it turned out to this.

“Miriaria onee-sama, are you sure of this? I’ll be following Kent’s command?”

“Rina, are you going to do it or not?”

“Ah, I don’t know anymore. Forgive me onee-sama. I, Rina Doman, will pledged my loyalty to serve Kent, the master of black dagger household.”

after that, we finished our bath and went up to the bedroom.

Neta chara chapter 23: atonement

At first it was painful. Really it hurt so much.

I was a fool who believed when he said that ‘he will do me gently’. However I thought the pain I had caused for Kent was more painful.

That time when I drunk some fruit wine, I don’t know why but my body was feeling hot looking at Kent’s face. Even when I first met him and teaching him, I only thought of him as someone who stole onee-sama from me.

Right now, I’m accepting all of him.

“Rina, does it hurt?”

how sly was he for saying that at this moment? But because of that it wasn’t so painful for me. This was also my atonement for Kent. It was also my promise to onee-sama. Because I had to become his sex slave.

“Miri, Annabella, help me caress her so Rina doesn’t feel too painful.”

under such stimulus in fact I didn’t feel the pain anymore. The feeling was gradually getting better.

Onee-sama and Annabella started to lick my chest because of his words. When compared to the two, mine was inferior but the ticklish feeling coming from it had increased.

“Ahn~”

“Rina, are you getting turned on?”

I can feel my face was burning when I heard that. Onee-sama and Annabella that were playing my chest earlier now had explored all over my body.

“Rina is cute. I can’t hold myself back.”

as Kent said that, my brain was melting.

No, this was atonement. This was my punishment. How can it be this comfortable?

“Idiot… don’t say that.”

I have always hated this guy from the beginning but now… I might like him more than I liked onee-sama. Ah, onee-sama was sucking on my chest and she also heard that.

“Rina, is it possible that you will be Kent’s favorite?”

“Onee-sama… I’m doing this… because of you!”

ah, I am feeling conflicted. This was atonement for my fault but if I fall in love with Kent, this was not punishment anymore. Why I have became so indecisive?

"I like Rina…"

What a sly boy! How should I feel after hearing that?

The pleasure that Kent gave me had caused my mind to feel numb. Even my consciousness was going wild.

……

When I regained my consciousness, Kent was doing onee-sama. The onee-sama that always wear composed face was right now being ravaged. It was the face of a female being pleased by a wild beast. I was excited seeing her expression that she never show before. Kent also showed a satisfied expression like before when he was doing it with me. Onee-sama body little by little started to tremble. Apparently she had reached her climax. Her desire had been fulfilled.

After that, Kent looked at me again after onee-sama collapsed on the bed.

"Rina, did you watch me doing it with Miri?"

I was embarrassed and looked away.

"No, I didn't see anything."

after that, Kent had been invading me again.

“Don’t lie to me. If you lie I’ll punish you.”

“No, that wasn’t a lie.”

after that the beast was rampaging inside of me. Intense pleasure climbed up better than the first time. Right now I’m sure my face was melting like onee-sama earlier. The intense pleasure made me want to surrender.

……

Phew… It’s finished.

I need to clean up the battle field.

The three girls in front of me were sleeping quietly like the river. The ‘beast’ inside of me had been attacking Rina mercilessly and hungrily devoured her even though it’s her first time. But since it wasn’t enough, I also eat Miri and Annabella in the process. In particular even though it’s Rina first time, she tried her best to cope up with me. It showed me her devotion. After watching the girls comforting the ‘beast’ my next goal is to control this ‘beast’. The three girls that had a hard time to suppressed it, I gave them a kiss of gratitude. Rina was being sandwiched comfortably in the middle of Miri and Annabella chest. I was watching them from the edge of the bed.

Neta Chara chapter 24

I was sitting on the edge of the bed as I checked the message log.

》 Job level up: Gigolo LVL 3 → LVL4

》 1 skill points acquired

My job【gigolo】had increased to LVL 4 in two day after it was acquired. I guess my job level really went up considerably faster than others. Rina had also fell to my charm but I don't really care since she was attractive. But afterall I needed to get another job other than【gigolo】so when my job was checked by appraisal stone I won't be too embarrassed. I also checked the log about Rina's changes.

》 Friendship with Rina declined

》 Friendship with Rina declined however【Handsome】skill triggered successfully》【Handsome】skill triggered, Rina friendship increased》【Handsome】skill triggered, Rina friendship increased》Rina state: normal

》【Handsome】skill triggered, Rina friendship increased》【Handsome】skill triggered, Rina friendship increased》Rina state: in favor of you

---

Just what was the trigger conditions for my skill? I continued to look at the log again.

》 Received attack from Rina《Fireball》

〗【Handsome】skill triggered, Rina friendship increased 〗〗【Handsome】skill triggered, Rina friendship increased 〗 Rina state: starts to show tender emotions before activating《Fireball》

〗【Handsome】skill triggered, Rina friendship increased 〗〗【Handsome】skill triggered, Rina friendship increased 〗〗【Handsome】skill triggered, Rina friendship increased 〗 Rina state: started to fall in love 〗【Well protected】skill triggered, Rina accepted sexual slavery 〗〗【Womanizer】skill triggered, Rina love is increased 〗 Rina state: servicing slave

---

So, let's try guessing the trigger conditions of【Handsome】skill . When the lesson was occurring today, the friendship level was actually lowered. So, when did the【Handsome】skill got triggered? If I go through the message log, it was before the《Fireball》incident. So during dinner? When Rina was drunk? When she was drunk and gripped the nape of my neck, suddenly I felt Rina acting differently. At that time I also thought for the first time that she was actually really pretty. So, was it back then? The【Handsome】skill triggering conditions was whether I liked the target or not? If that was so, I just needed to focus on my feelings.

Firstly, I will make someone's friendship increase by【Handsome】skill.

Secondly, when the state is changed to in favor or like, the【Well protected】skill can be triggered.

Thirdly, in sexual activity,【Womanizer】will further increase the effect.

Fourth,【Sexual prodigy】skill will make my stamina endless when engaging in it.

So judging from this, the third and fourth step can be repeated to make an infinite loop. Judging from this fact, the former me that was "enemy of all women" has now turned into a "women killer". Are Miri and Annabella already looping within the third and fourth step?

A hint of anxious feelings spread in my heart. It was like my girlfriend was actually forced to be my girlfriend. Ah, let's just change my way of thinking.【Handsome】skill was triggered when two people have mutual feelings for each other, yes, that's it. Though in the end I have ended up developing feelings and love for the girls, I don't want to swallow the truth if it was actually forced it onto them. It might make me harder to talk to other woman if just my feelings for them will turn them into mine.

(Tl note: are you sure huh? A considerate MC?)

Well, if just talking to a girl will make them fall in love with me, as a man this feels like the ultimate dream world. However I also still have a resolution to love one girl only. But if my skill combo was really working as I concluded earlier, I need to get a stronger self-control resolution. And I also don't want to find myself trapped in homosexuality as I'm not sure whether my skill work on same sex or not. Well, I didn't denied the fact that a harem is indeed attracting for me too.

(Tl note: see… hahaha)

Tomorrow let's consult to Rina if there is any way to seal the skill. Maybe there is a magic tool to reduce the effect or block it too. Anyway, for now I don't want to increase the number of victim of my power. I yelled as I decided that and dived into the bed.

Neta Chara chapter 25

Boing boing

What was that?

"...ahn..."

There is no doubt that it is definitely the sound of someone moaning.

boing boing

And what is this soft feeling in my hand? It's like my hand was completely sucked in into this softness.

As I slowly opened my eyes, I can see Rina with a bright red face and rigid breathing.

.....

"Captain! It's the enemy ship!"

"What? How can the enemy ship be here? Quickly check it out!"

"We have incoming data! Here it comes. The enemy ship is only a small A class ship."

"Only an A class? I thought it will be G,H or even D was alright. However the softness is just right.”

“The enemy identity has been confirmed. Lightning stroke tsundere.”

“Lightning stroke tsundere? Then what are you waiting for? Quickly avoid the lighting stroke tsundere.”

……

Rina then looked at me with a bright red face.

“I-i-it’s not like I like you touching me… but please be gentle.”

……..

“ Captain, the lightning stroke tsundere can’t be avoided. She used a tracking homing missile.”

“In that case, shoot the missile with a machine gun.”

“Useless captain! Here comes another attack from the lighting stroke tsundere.”

……..

Rina then continued to whisper in a soft voice.

“I-i-it’s not like I will let anyone touch it… just Kent…”

……

“Captain this is bad! Moe attack! The attack had landed. The middle section of the Lightning stroke tsundere has started to erect.”

“No, our ship hasn’t sink yet!”

“It is useless captain. The hull was breached! The engine will stop in a moment if we couldn’t close it.”

“Even if it’s only an A class, the damage is able to sink us down.”

“Let us all retreat and take revenge later.”

losing my reasoning, I hugged Rina. Rina that was fidgeting when our eyes met which looks very cute. However suddenly I remembered the thing that has been lurking in my mind from yesterday.

“Rina, I want to ask. Is there any way to block a skill?”

“There might be a way. What skill do you want to block?”

ah, the first thing that I needed to block.

“Is it possible to block【Handsome】skill?”

“【Handsome】skill huh? It should be possible… it was a unique skill, may be tricky but with a magic tool it should be able to be blocked.”

Rina however looked at me with a confused face.

“However, why do you want to block your unique skill?”

after that, I told Rina what I have been thinking yesterday. After that she also tried to confirm my conclusion.

“So, I want to keep【Handsome】skill blocked to prevent another victim.”

“You know, I am a researcher so I still need to know what is the triggering condition however it seemed that you are right. But since【Handsome】is a unique skill we can’t be sure yet. It was also because of this skill that I was influenced by you… b-b-b-b-ut I didn’t hate it, loving you it is.”

Rina who was giving her confession, her face was now as red as octopus.

“I was also at first hated by you. But it’s all starting to change when I was thinking that Rina is cute. However to forcibly changed their feelings, I can call myself as ‘enemy of the women’.”

Rina was amazed hearing what I say. ‘enemy of the women’. The skill that I have might trapped them in an invincible loop which will make them always loyal to me without considering their real feelings.

“Understood. I shall look for a way and a magic tool to seal the【Handsome】skill.”

“Oh, you got an idea already?”

“There might be something in the magic tool shop in the magic city. I’ll tell you when I find it.”

at that situation, I can’t help but give Rina a kiss on the cheek.

“Thank you. Since the other two is already awake and preparing breakfast, we should go down now.”

“yes.”

After that Rina stepped down from the bed and started to dress up. I also went to the first floor after changing into my clothes. Miri and Annabella were already there and I told them about my decision to block the【Handsome】skill to them.

【Handsome】,【Well protected】,【Womanizer】, and【Sexual prodigy】infinite loop. When they realized that, I was relieved that no one hated me for it.

“But, I’m sure that I liked Kent not because of your skill.”

Miri said that with a serious face towards me.

“I am agree with Miriaria-sama. I choose Kent-sama as a master because I deemed you worthy.”

Annabella also replied with the same expression. Even Rina wanted to said it too.

"Alright let's cut it out now. Whether it was because of my skill or not, you are important for me."

I also have to thanked this skill that the three of them could get along and not actually started to harm each other.

"Even if you liked me out of your free will I still have to say sorry."

It might be selfish of me but I am glad to have this kind of love relationship.

After that since everyone really cared about me, the original plan to go with Rina changed so that the four of us will go to search for the magic tool to seal my skill.

Neta Chara chapter 26

"The World's best magic tool shop, Vittoria Shop!"

that was the sign that was hung on the edge of the eaves of the building. This was the magic tool shop that Rina recommend for me. The shopkeeper seemed to be a young teenager and immediately greeted me when I come in.

"How may I help you? My name is Hector Vittoria, the owner of this shop that is one of the best in the world."

The shopkeeper greeted us with a high-pitched voice.

"Ah, what do we have here? A high class costumer from the black dagger household."

Seeing the costumer, Hector's hand was rubbed together as if seeing a prey.

"And you miss, you just came the other day for a bust enlargement device. How is it working?"

Hearing that, Rina face was immediately reddened.

"Idiot! I don't know what you are saying! Stop spouting nonsense!"

Surprisingly Rina also paying attention to her A class bust.

Rina then looked towards me and prepared to cast a《fireball》

“You, why are you grinning?”

I can only shook my head in return.

“And miss, what does someone from the black dagger household looking for?”

“Do you have a magic tool to seduce someone? I mean to seduce a man.”

Miri, what were you thinking now? We’re here to look for a magic tool to block my skill and do you think you still need magic tool to seduce someone?

“Miriaria-sama, have you forgotten the reason we come here? A magic tool for seducing someone is useless anyway.”

Annabella statement was so scary. She said that it was useless. Well, it really was useless for her.

“Well then, I still have something to increase your bust size. It’s a new product apparently.”

“Hector! I said I don’t need them.”

this was somehow getting out of hand. Hector just tried to offer anyone magic tools whenever he got the chance.

“Hector, I heard that you have all kinds of magic tool here.”

“Yes, of course! Our shop is one of the best in the world. We can fulfill your every request.”

“So, do you have a magic tool to block【Handsome】unique skill?”

Hector’s face became tense and his eyes begun to swim.

“【Handsome】skill..? well not to mention a magic tool to block a skill is rare. Hmm… a unique skill blocker.”

Hector then started to talk on his own. I wonder if it’s really possible. If not I have to harden my iron-will so I will not fall for girls easily.

“I guess that means there’s nothing to block this skill right? Sorry to have waste your time.”

Hector then grabbed my hand. “Wait, please wait. I might have something in the store. Please wait!”

after that Hector moved to the back of the store and seemed to be looking for something while tossing things around.

While Hector was busy, the other girls were searching the shop.

“Onee-sama, look at this here. It has a beautiful shining decoration.”

in Rina hand, she was carrying a crystal ball that was colored pink. If you put it in my room, it will definitely gives off the vibe of a love hotel.

“Rather than that Rina, Annabella, do you think this rotating bed is good?”

Miri was now focusing on the rotating bed. Are you girls really trying to turn my room into a love hotel?

“Miriaria-sama, we should add this in the bath!”

Annabella going with the flow was holding a magic mirror. I wonder what that is?

“If someone look at us in the bath through this mirror, they will get ‘excited’.”

Really, Annabella was the scariest girl out of them all. I wonder what will happen if I look at them through that mirror.

“Ah, Kent-san, sorry to keep you waiting. This might be the thing that you’re looking for. This is the mask of beauty and the beast.”

there is something like this? It was a mask with a black visor.

“So, I get the feeling that the【Handsome】skill can be turned into【ugly】. Want to try it out?”

“By all means, I want to try it.”

after that I received the mask of beauty and the beast from Hector. The black visor covered my eyes and there was a button to activate it.

piip piip piip… boom

There's a small explosion and smoke rising from the mask.

"Whaaa! It exploded!"

"AAAh! My mask of beauty and the beast! How can it break?"

Hector was crying but it's not like I do it in purpose.

"As I thought, this is impossible…"

"Kent-san, let me try another one, in the name of the Vittoria shop!"

once again Hector move to the back of the shop and rummage in the magic tool shelves. Afterwards he came out with a ring and glasses.

"The first item, is 'ring of transgender'."

just by hearing the name, I knew what the effect of the item.

"Maybe if Kent-san turned into a woman, the【Handsome】skill will be disabled."

"Alright, let's try it out."

I wore the ring of transgender and recite the activation commands. I was wrapped in light that is emitted from the ring. When the light subsided, I realized that the thing that was usually in my nether area was gone. What's more, I have a big bust. I tried to massage my own chest and I feel a little bit funny. I also check my skill however the【Handsome】skill has turned into【pretty】. The skill isn't blocked at all, it only changed. I mean, even Hector in front of me was looking at me with wolf's eye.

"Kent-san, how about we check the effect in another room?"

Even Hector right now was trying to take me to another room. In a hurry I released my transformation.

"Ha Ha! What am I thinking?"

"This ring of transgender has failed. Do you want to be beaten to death?"

I throw the ring back to Hector and pouted.

"Kent-san, sorry I really didn't mean it like that. Sorry for my rudeness. This is the last item, 'illusion glasses'."

"Illusion glasses? What kind of magic tool is this?"

"Originally this was made for someone with extreme female phobia. If someone wears this, everybody else will turned into a male in the eye of the wearer."

I put on the glasses and said the activation command.

I looked into Rina and she has turned into a small boy. Miri is a tennage boy and Annabella is a young man with beard. Certainly if its like this I will never have a feelings for them.

"Well, I didn't see the skill triggered so far.. so this might be working."

"Is it working Kent-sama?"

"Most likely."

"So, right now we only have to see if it's really working."

I look at Miri again and I really didn't have any feelings towards her so this might be effective.

"Heh, I wonder how I looked like if I was a men. But just thinking when I did it with him in a men form… I…"

"Anyway, is this thing working?"

"Yes, Rina, I think this is good enough."

after that, it is confirmed that we will buy this thing and start to negotiate on the price.

"So, how much for this glasses?"

Hector took out an abacus and start to calculate with a smiling face.

“Since this is the first visit of the black dagger household, I will give a big discount. It should be 5 gold coins but I can take away three silver.”

“Are you trying to rip us off Hector? How can a simple glasses be so expensive? I think even two gold and five silver is the maximum price.” Rina then started to haggle. However since I don’t know the monetary value of this world, I still don’t know how much is expensive.

“Rina-san, look here. My mask of beauty and the beast is also broken. The repair could even be as much as three gold coins. It’s all reasonable.”

“So, what do you think about it Annabella? Can we afford it ?”

“Yes, I think that there is no problem. We can buy it.”

“Alright, We’ll take it.”

When Miri said that, Hector was in joy.

“Are you sure you want to settle it with this price.”

“Yeah, and we will take the glasses with us now.”

“Yes, with all means.”

after that I walked out wearing the illusion glasses. Miri, Annabella and Rina has all fallen to the handsome skill. So right now we decided to try it out on Feria who is serving food at the Hunter’s Guild.

Chapter 27: Hiring

After we bought the magic tool we came to the hunter guild to eat lunch. Our goal was to meet with Feria and checked the effect. As soon as Miri and we arrived at the guild, she moved behind the quest counter and disappeared and came out not long after.

Rina even have an idea for us to isolate Feria and later if can, she wanted to bury herself on her chest by utilizing her 'God Hand' skill. As she lost in her imagination, right now I am waiting with Annabella.

Right now we're also going to check the effect of the 'illusion glasses'. We only lacked the test subject after all. I am also only a useless man right now so I need to seal this【Handsome】skill.

Our test subject will be Feria because she has once affected by【Handsome】skill. In other words, she has become the skill victim. So we're going to check if the【Handsome】skill will be triggered or no under the magic tool. However as I now know how this【Handsome】skill worked and the scary effect of it, it was a big gamble.

Alright, so let's start the battle. I opened my chat log to see whether it worked out.

"Excuse me, miss Feria, can you bring me the menu?"

as Feria approached me, I look closer as the notification log. However the window that is floated can't be seen by anyone but me so it is appeared as if I was staring at Rina's breast.

“Oh, isn’t it Kent? And Annabella? It’s such unusual to see you here.”

“Ah, Kent-sama said that he wants to eat out with everybody.”

now, let me see the notification log.

“So, are you heading for a quest Kent-san?”

“No, I’m here to eat because the meal is delicious.”

Right now, Feria was moving closer to me.

“So, what do you want to order?”

“I don’t know… Annabella how about you order the food?”

Annabella nodded and I used the chance to look at the log again.

】【Handsome】skill triggered, Feria friendship increased

No! the skill was still triggered! The experiment was a failure. Is it because she has been affected by the【Handsome】skill before? Was it too late? Even the illusion glasses can’t stop the effect. An unpleasant image was flashing in my mind. It was the sight of Feria handing over her hard earned money to me. If I really left her in this state it might be a reality. It was bad if we stayed any longer.

“Kent-san?”

Feria was now looking at me and asked.

“Ah, I’m sorry. What is it again?”

“So do you want to order anything else?”

“Ah, that’s enough for now.”

Feria then walked to the kitchen to deliver the order.

once again it was displayed on the log. It was as if watching the countdown as it is reaching the final stage.

“Kent-sama, how was it?”

Annabella came and asked me about the result. Rina also came and sit quietly next to her.

“No way, even Feria…”

Rina couldn’t hide her shock.

“It was possible that because Feria is already affected by my skill from the start.”

However, the real weight was contained in the next sentence about Feria.

“About Feria-chan, let us hire her as one of our maid. I think we can afford her wage.”

Annabella then suggested for me to bring Feria to the black dagger mansion.

“What do you think? We can’t leave Feria like this right?” Rina was also asking me.

Indeed, if we leave things like this, the friendship level will increase every time I meet her and once【Well protected】skill activated, once again she will be a prey to this endless loop. Just when I was deep in thoughts, Miri come back.

“How is it going?”

I answered by shaking my head.

“I see. So it can’t be helped. We will accept that waiter as one of Kent’s servant.”

Hearing Miri straightforward words, my stomach was upsetting. In other words, Feria will also become my woman. Maybe, I will fall to hell when I died because of the sin I have done but at least I will also give Feria my fair amount of love. I decided to do this after she finished serving the food.

“Feria, there is something that I want to tell you.”

Feria which was already turned her body away and immediately looked at me with her brown eyes.

“It seems like I have fallen for Feria!”

when I said that, I saw the windows log flowed abruptly.

〗Feria state: In love

“Eh? Why suddenly a confession?”

Feria was surprised and answered with a question.

“I love Feria.”

“Do you realized what you are saying Kent-san? Over there, you have Miriaria-san already.”

Miri then answered with a flat face.

“My relationship is as owner master and subordinate, I am merely in his possession.”

as a follow-up, Annabella also spoke up and offered her a job.

“We also have been looking for a maid to be a person attendant of Kent-sama. If you are interested, we will double your pay.”

Rina also adding fuel to the fire.

“Feria, I know you also loved him. Just accepted it.”

“T-t-there’s no such thing!” Feria with a red face shake her head.

“You will be able to serve him at night too.”

“Feria, will you be my personal maid?”

“Kent-san… if you insist, please hire me as your Sex Maid!”

〗【Well protected】skill triggered, Feria has accepted sexual slavery

〗 Feria state: slave (love)

I felt things has escalated very quickly. I felt sorry for Feria.

“Feria, because you will be one of my maid, do you have any question?”

“Ah, since I will also serve at night, is there a living quarter provided for me?”

“ah, is something going to really happened at the first night?”

Rina has lost herself in some kind of delusion. I am also wondering, will Rina also stayed at the mansion?

“Rina, are you coming back with us?”

“If I have to move in, I want a different room than your sex slaves. On top of that, I want some preferential treatment as if I am a guest too!”

Rina said that with a threatening attitude and I was forced to look at Annabella.

“Annabella do we still have rooms for them?”

“Yes, we have vacant rooms to accommodate them.”

“Well, it will be better if we sleep in one room.”

Miri said that as if she was expecting something fun.

Right now, I don’t want to add another victim to my skill. We need to get out of this place. Once again also, I wanted to try to test the illusion glasses power once again. I wonder if this thing was really working.

(author note: Finally another character has fallen. But there will still time before her first service. The main idea is to have someone that is acquaintances with the guild.)

Chapter 28: Hunter training school

After we resolved the problem about Feria in the guild and finished our lunch, I was interested while reading on the characters written on the wall's blackboard.

"Hunter training school is recruiting students. More info can be known at the counter."

"What is it, Kent?"

Miri was reacting to my gaze.

"It's just that I saw the info about the hunter training school, and I was wondering about it."

"Oh, the hunter training school? It was a school that teaches the basic combats for close combatant."

"Basic combat for close combatant?"

As I said that, Rina is looking at me angrily.

"Did you really forget what I tell you? 「Warrior」, 「Swordsman」, 「Scout」, 「Hunter」, 「Sorcerers」, 「Spearman」, 「Healer」 are some of the jobs and close combatant includes 「Warrior」, 「Swordsman」, 「Scout」, 「Hunter」, 「Spearman」. The close combatant job usually the one that goes to training school that is suitable for their level. Even if you don't have the job, you can still, at least, gain some close combat skill and earn a class.”

“Oh, does Kent want to enter the hunter training school? Do you have a class in mind?”

Feria who has been listening all along is interested.

“By the way, what is the color of Kent’s ID card?”

Speaking was too much of a hassle so I put my ID card on top of the table.

“What! That color!”

Annabella immediately blocks Feria mouth as her voice was getting loud.

“Feria, please keep the color of Kent-san’s card a secret. If a word of it were to leak out you will be executed by the city lord.”

Feria then noded after some moments and her face turned pale.

“anyway Kent, just put away your card already.” This time, Feria was forcing me to put away my card. After that, she looked at me while lowering her gaze.

“Kent I wonder if you will regret taking me in. my card color is only green.”

After that, I tried to look at her status from the party screen.

Title: Kent's slave (sex) , magician, researcher

Indeed, she was a researcher that give a scholarly vibe. The color of her card is blue by the way.

"So, Kent-san are you going to enter the hunter training school?"

Annabella asked to me timidly.

"Will I be able to get a job if I enrolled?"

"Currently, the hunter training school is looking for「Demon hunter」, 「Kingdom's soldier」, and「Mercenaries」."

"I won't let you enter or chose one of these 3 available."

"Why?"

“Kent, these three positions are a dangerous ones and it can even cost you your life. I could never allow you to choose such a job.”

Miri said that as if she was an overprotective mother however Annabella seemed to agree too.

“How about becoming a「Guild member」or「researchers?」”

“Or taking the magic certification exam in the magic guild and become「magician」or「healer」?”

“but speaking of which, what is Kent magic affinity?” Feria question hits at a painful place.

“Have you check your magic affinity Kent?”

“He is one of the lost people however he doesn’t have some magical power for now.”

With that, my course of action was decided.

“I will be entering the hunter training school.”

“however don’t enroll to any of the jobs, do it to learn some self-defense technique only.” Miri reminded me.

“Onee-san is too overprotective.”

“Rina, carelessness and complacency are the worst and could lead to a bad result.”

Miri voice was so loud and it even on a high tension. After that, I was helped by Feria to enroll at the hunter training school.

In the counter, a young man greeted us.

“How may I help you?”

It was a man but his voice was so cute, I am even shocked for a while at the gap between visual and voice. Ah, I remember it was all because of the illusion glasses.

I have an urge to see the face and took of my glasses but I need to maintain my self-control while hearing the details of the hunter training school.

“I want to enter the hunter training school, can I ask the procedure?”

“yes, but which course? Warrior, swordsman, scout, hunter, or spearman?”

“Is it possible to take all of them at once?”

The man’s face then become a big question mark.

“usually, we only have one course per person since if just in case there is a job acquisition it will be hard to take another course.”

“Well, how many days does it usually take before a person get a job acquisition?”

“usually, they will have acquired their job on the 3rd day on average.”

If a normal person needed three days, I may need a little bit more.

“Three days to acquire a close combat job?” the young man behind the counter then said that because of Feria remarks.

“Feria, you should know it since you’ve been here for a while it wasn’t that short.”

“Yes, but it’s been a while since I explained about job acquisition of close combatant so maybe I have forgetten about it.”

The young man could only shake his head.

“Then, should I also try to accompany you, Kent?”

Hearing that, I started to imagine Feria wearing a bikini armor.

“Oh, Feria you also want to enroll?”

“If Kent and I can be in the same course then it was not a problem.”

In that situation, I don’t know of what to do so I just decided whatever suits me.

“If you’re content with that then it’s okay.”

“yeay, Kent is giving his consent. Hyan!”

Suddenly Feria was raising her voice. It seemed that Rina was rubbing her chest from behind.

"There, take that!"

I look behind and Miri was there too.

"So, Kent have you choose your course?"

I am thinking for a while before deciding.

"Probably I will choose the warrior course to raise my physical strength?"

"yeah, that was a good plan. Warrior also uses heavy equipment which will increase the training effect."

After that, the young man behind the counter asked me.

"So you will enroll in the warrior course along with Feria, is that correct?"

The young man wanted to confirm before someone speak again.

"I will also enroll in the warrior course along with Kent-san."

Annabella declaration caused a silence.

"Well, Annabella is also going to enter the warrior course?"

“Yes, as your personal caretaker I need to make sure I am there if there’s an emergency and to protect you. Entering the warrior course is not a big deal.”

Annabella actually did all of this while thinking of me… it’s all for my sake.

“So, it will be three people enrolling in the warrior course, since it was everyone’s first time, it is free to enter the course.”

The man said that and it was good that the expenses were covered.

“Do you need anything else?”

“To complete the registration, please fill the name, age, race and information on this document.”

The man then gave each of us a piece of paper.

“When you completed the training school you will automatically be registered as a hunter and your ID card will have something called HR or hunter rank, please note that.”

Speaking of hunter rank, Miri rank was 200.

“Yes, I understand.”

“Okay, if you have finished with the documents, you can come in the morning tomorrow to attend the course. Feria, don’t you need to make a request of absence?”

The young man seemed to be asking about Feria.

“No, I have already resigned from this place and will serve the black dagger household starting tomorrow.”

“What? Is that true? How can you speak something like that so lightly? You know that by requesting your retirement you need to at least search for replacement, or if not you will get penalty.”

The young man face was changed into unsightly ones.

“Miriaria-san, is that true?”

The young man was looking at Miri.

“Well… it’s like that.”

Miri seemed to be troubled and Annabella came to the rescue.

“It’s just the black dagger household is wanting to have Feria-san serving in the house. We will be the one that will handle the penalty.”

“It was too sudden. However, since it was the black dagger household, and the penalty will be paid…”

The man was thinking for a while before he suddenly thought of something.

“Miriaria-san instead of paying the penalty, how about you do one request? It’s only a request.”

“Well, I still don’t know about that. What kind of request? Since I still need to take care of Kent.”

“If it was for someone of S rank like Miriaria-san I believe it won’t take long. It was a simple one."

"What's the request?"

"yes, there is an abyss gate detected in the nearby settlement and some Goblin species has run amok in the village. Today, that village has turned into a nest of demon and the number of monster residing is around 500, the reward is 1 gold coin."

"That pay isn't even good. And it's a goblin out of all race."

Miri was discussing the work and we can only watch in silence.

"So, will you do it?"

"I don't really want to do it. What will happen if I don't do it?"

"Hmm… I will reject their training course application?"

"Miri, if you don't want, we can always do other training later."

When I said that, Miri was looking at me.

"It can't be helped. I will do it. Please give me the map of the location, and Rina please lend me a hand so we can finish it quickly."

"Well, Onee-san, you want me to help? But you know, Kent「Sexual prodigy」skill need to be relieved."

Miri then dragged Rina in her arms while walking out.

“Don’t worry, we will be back in around three days. As for your 「Sexual prodigy」, I will leave it to you, Annabella and Feria. Please take care of Kent.”

“Onee-san, I also want to stay to prevent the skill.”

“Talk later after we come back.”

Miri then after receiving the map from the man and went out of the building.

I’m sorry Miri, it’s all because of me that you have to go through all this trouble.

“Well, so it will all be proceeding as planned before.”

After that, the young man behind the counter smiled as we leave.

“Although it was only temporary but this case is closed already.”

It was Feria ridiculous statement but it was true. I can even feel my body was feeling tired and on the way back we rode a horse drawn carriage towards Miriaria residence.

Author note: for a while Miri and Rina won’t be here as Anabella will teach Feria all of her duties.

Neta chara chapter 29: maid training

-Feria's PoV-

After we arrived at Miriaria's house, we took our meal together and were thinking about how to handle the「Sexual prodigy」skill. When having dinner even though Anabella and I were maids, we had our dinner together and it makes me happy.

For me, the image of maid in my mind is different. In my mind, maids are those that always do daily chores such as cooking, washing, cleaning and didn't even have a good meal. When servicing at night, I was even thinking that it was some kind of punishment given by the master.

I was even more surprised that I got my own room. It was much different from my time living in the guild quarters and a room is always filled with several people. However here in the black dagger household, I am also given my own room. I couldn't believe that ordinary maid like me could get a private room. For me that was used living in the guild provided camp, the difference from four people room and now having one room to myself is so big. They even said that I can get monthly allowance depending on my job relieving Kent「Sexual prodigy」skill. I was thinking that it was more like of a concubine rather than a maid. I am also curious at why Kent become the head of the black dagger household after becoming Miriaria-san's owner. I mean she was virtually a noble at first to be under someone else was unimaginable.

I am also surprised that I am able to be here. We never talk much, and suddenly Kent made a confession directly to me. My mind became pure white even when I know about the「Sexual prodigy」skill, I am agreeing to this. Kent also said that he will take responsibilities for me.

When I was thinking of such things, someone was knocking on the door.

“Feria, have you finished?”

“Yes.”

“Alright, let’ go and take a bath.”

I followed Annabella-san towards the bath. When I think of it, Kent was entering the bath earlier. It’s going to be embarrassing since I realized that they will be looking at my naked body. More importantly, I am quite embarrassed about my chest. It was quite big and it kept making my shoulders stiff from time to time. It also made other people to stare at me and sometimes it blocked my view and makes me stumbled.

When I enter the bath, it really worthy of the black dagger household. It was enormous. After cleaning my body with hot water, Annabella went directly into the bath and I followed. We sat at the side of Kent. He kept on looking at my chest.

“Is this a float?”

Kent said that while playing with my chest that’s floating in the hot water.

“It was bigger than mine, even mine couldn’t float like this.”

Annabella also come and played with it. Toyed by two people, I can feel it’s getting hard.

“I will not get tired of this kind of breast.”

Kent was still playing with it.

“So, Kent-san you’re saying that my chest was lacking?”

Annabella then put up a sad face. Kent also looking at that started to play with her using his other hand.

“Of course yours are also good Annabella. There’s no way I get tired of it too.”

“Kent-san, thank you very much. For now, let us serve and clean you. Feria, come with me.”

After that, we moved to the washing area. Annabella passed me some soap to use on Kent body, however, there was no scrub or sponge.

“Feria, we wash Kent-san using our body.”

Annabella then put the soap all over her body until it bubbled and used her body as a sponge to rub on Kent.

“Oh, it feels so good Annabella.”

Kent expression was like full of ecstasy. I also knew on what to do and did the same.

“Feria, can you do the front? Using your chest. Thank you.”

I was told to wash his chest; I was kind of embarrassed but I have to do it.

"Kneel in front of Kent-san and use your chest to do it."

Annabella told me that and I complied.

"Please try to enjoy Feria's chest, Kent-san. I am sure it will feel really good."

I use my soap covered chest and looked at him nervously. Somehow Kent eyes that were looking at me were different. Seems like it's another Kent.

"Feria chest feels really good."

Like earlier, Kent's face showed some pleasure and ecstasy so I wonder if it really felt good.

"Feria, please continue what you've been doing. As you realized for a moment Kent-san alter ego show up and it won't be possible if he didn't feel pleasured."

As explained by Annabella I understand what was happening. I kept on doing what I've been doing. The soap made it easier to move and I smoothly move up and down. However, there's an itchy pain kind of feeling coming from my chest.

"Feria is the best."

That words were kind of teasing me so I can only endure and do my job better.

"Feria, I can't hold it back anymore. It's coming!"

What's coming? Huh? Just then I realized that it was his alter ego that's saying that. Not long after, there's a warm white liquid that is shot out onto my chest. I can only daze there, looking at that liquid that was clearly not soap.

"You even let it out already Kent-san. Is Feria chest really felt that good?"

"Oh, it was superb, don't tease me and keep this a secret from Miri."

While they were chatting finally they noticed me.

"Ah, sorry Feria, it felt really good so I can't hold it back."

Kent was saying sorry to me while his hand now moved and massaged my chest.

He isn't worried that it was full of soap and contaminated with the white liquid. He was playing with it as if he is appreciating it.

"These are so beautiful, let's go to the bedroom so I can enjoy it fully."

"Yes."

After that, we cleaned our body and head out from the bathroom towards the bedroom.

When we arrived there, Kent directly took Annabella to sates his 「Sexual prodigy」 skill.

Annabella was now riding on top of him and the sight was so stimulating.

"Kent-san, do you want me to move rougher?"

Annabella-san raised a question to Kent

"It's alright, show me your wild side, Annabella."

"Kent-san."

Annabella expression who's been given permission has changed to that look which is full of lust.

"Kent-san, Kent-san, Kent-san, ooh…"

She was moaning while moving her hip quickly and vigorously. Kent even clenched his teeth because of the pleasures.

"Annabella, I'm at my limit."

"It's fine, pour me your love."

Annabella even trembling a little as she has also reached her end, some liquid then flowed down from the parts where they were connected. Annabella's body then twitched before she fallen on top of Kent because of the exhaustion.

"Feria, this is how we relieve the 「Sexual prodigy」 skill, now it's your turn."

Annabella got off from Kent and he was now looking at me. What should I do? This is my first time. I can feel my body tensed up.

“Feria, it’s okay. Leave it to me.”

I am older but at that moment, I can only follow Kent’s lead. He suddenly sucks on my chest and Annabella even joined and get on the other. This time, they are planted deep on my chest.

“You two, hey, it’s ticklish.”

However, they ignored my words and continue. I can even feel my lower body feels hot and moistened under the attack. Annabella seemed to notice that and split my leg open while her finger was moving toward my sensitive spot. Kent was also doing the same. My body trembled when their tongue and fingers kept sending pleasures towards me.

I can even feel that I’m drooling right now.

“Feria, do you feel good?”

Kent came and asked me but I can’t answer anything. The pleasure coming from the tongue and fingers made my head hazy. I didn’t know that my body can make me feel this good.

“Kent-san, it will be better for you to be her first now since Feria is now relaxed.”

“Alright. I’m still going to do it carefully too since this is her first.”

Kent whisper at me and I can feel some pain in my lower body. Mixed with the pleasure, I can't even think right now.

"This… what is this feeling?"

It didn't take long before Kent reached the deepest part of me.

"Oh, it's so tight. I can't hold it back for long."

At that moment, Kent was moving in and out of me while kept sending pleasure and pain for me. At that time, I have been conquered by Kent. He planted it deep and release it all deep inside me. That hot liquid reaches the deepest part and it was as if he was claiming ownership over my body.

"I think Feria is enjoying this too, she even moves on her own."

I was embarrassed and can only nod. After that, he entered me again. Thanks to the wetness, it doesn't even feel pain anymore. It was like it had become more adjusted and I feel comfortable. But he put it in all at once.

"Uhn… Kent, baka…"

Hearing my word, Kent even move harder.

"Sorry, this is because Feria is irresistible."

"Feria, please hang in there for Kent-san."

After a while, another warm liquid was sprayed inside of me. He was letting it out hardly and afterward he collapsed on top of me. When I thought about it, the pleasure was enjoyable.

……

-Kent's PoV-

"Thank you for today."

Afterwards, Feria and Annabella helped me clean myself and determined there's nothing wrong so we can attend the training school tomorrow. The「Sexual prodigy」skill was also handled well. It's only bad that Miri and Rina weren't here now. But I'll reward them when they come back. I also look at the log that was blinking on my view.

〗 Job Level up:【Gigolo】Lv4 -> Lv 5

〗 1 Skill point acquired

〗 Due to【Gigolo】Lv 5,《Service》skill unlocked to be acquired

I decided to look at《Service》skill description.

Controlling the sexual desire and lead the target immerse in pleasure, you are able to control your own sex drive. Acquisition cost, 5 skill point.

The cost to get it was a lot but to be able to control sex drive, was it possible to control the 'beast' inside of me? Should I try to take this skill to reduce everyone's burden? I steal my resolution and use all of my remaining skill points to take this skill.

《Service》skill acquired.

I can only look for tomorrow whether this skill works or not.

Neta chara chapter 30: The road to be a warrior

(author note: this is the first time I write battle scene)

“Fuh, Fuh, this is seriously heavy.”

I am running on the field behind the hunter guild building, wearing plate armor all around my body. If you asked me what I’m doing, this is the warrior training that I attend to. Beside me, Annabella and Feria were there, and the male instructor, this course was attended by four people.

“Kent-san are you okay? Do you want to rest?”

Annabella come and asked me however seeing her still looking fine, as usual made me feel on fire. She was even wearing leather armor not her usual maid uniform but still put on a calm demeanor.

“Annabella, are you not tired?”

“Compared to cooking and taking care of the house, this is still light.”

It was indeed a scary statement since she was a LV50 maid. On the other hand, Feria appearance…

“Kent, sorry for the wait.”

Approaching from the distance was Feria, however the breastplate on her chest seemed to be unable to hold all of the content and made it as if it will fall out anytime. Even all of the other trainees were looking at her.

“my chest is hurting.”

Of course that was expected since there was no breastplate that matches her breast size. So she was forced to wear what was available even though it's sending pressure onto her chest. I am even worried that it will spill out when she is moving.

"The three of you over there! Who told you, that you can rest? Run!"

The instructor's voice then came like a thunder in a clear sky.

"Sorry."

After that we resumed our run again. However, I was running really slow this was because of the plate armor that I wear. This plate armor was made from iron and inside of it there is even a chain mail to protect the body, also the helmet and in total the weight easily exceed 30kg. the worst part was this heavy armor was so hot. It makes my clothes below the armor soaked with sweat.

"The trainee over there, Kent, run faster!"

The instructor yelled at me but I'm also trying my best here. After all, overdressed in full armor, I wonder was this bullying? Even Annabella and Feria were only wearing light leather armor. I'm the only one that was running on heavy armor eventually pulled by Feria so I can run faster.

It even made the instructor yelled at me.

"Kent! How can you let a girl pull you like that? Have you got no shame to the cute young lady-chan?"

"But, I can't move anymore."

Every time I moved forward, my body felt so heavy. The plate armor seemed to be heavier with every step I took.

"Are you really planning to be a warrior?"

After a while finally the run training ends.

Of course I am in the last place and finally when I heard that it has ended, I fell down to the ground while still in full armor. Really my stamina was bad.

"Kent-san, here drink some water."

Annabella who was the first one to finish give me some water in a bag. It was warm but more importantly I needed to hydrate myself to save my life.

"Kent, good work. Here some towel."

Feria passed some towel so I can wipe off the sweat but it was a troublesome thing, to detach the plate armor just to wipe my sweat was not worth the trouble.

"Trainee Kent!"

The instructors called me again.

“Yes sir!”

“Do you remember that you’re finished last?”

“Yes sir!”

The instructor the grinned

“Punishment! Do squat now and don’t stop until I tell you to.”

Asking me to do squad after running, not to mention the armor that I am wearing, how is this possible?

“Don’t you hear me? This is punishment!”

Annabella and Feria quickly came to my side.

“Instructor, it is unreasonable to ask Kent-san to do squat not to mention the armor, let me do it instead.”

Annabella then start to squat.

“Instructor, I will also take his place.”

Feria then started to squat too.

“Trainee Kent, aren’t you feel ashamed? As a man you rely on the woman. You can’t even do your punishment just go back and drink some milk!”

I was angry at the words of the instructors.

“Alright, I’ll do it. Annabella, Feria, stop. I will do it!”

Due to my words, the girls stopped their squad. I tried to crouch down but due to the extra weight it was even hard to straighten it again. My leg muscles began to convulse because of the pressure.

“Nghhhiii!”

“Yeah, not bad, but it’s only for one time. Again!”

The instructors then did the counting. My feet however felt like they are going to burst. Annabella and Feria were watching anxiously from the side.

Under their gaze, I can feel some energy from inside my body. The sweat earlier has been replaced by water I drink, so I should have some energy. Finally, I can do it at a steady pace. After so many times and when my consciousness almost faded, the instructor called out.

“Trainee Kent, that’s enough! Take a short break!”

“Fiuh… I’ve done it… fiuh…”

I was so tired.

“Well, it’s lunch break now. After lunch gather again and we will start the combat training in the afternoon.”

When I opened my eyes again, I am sleeping on the side of the training field. My plate armor has been taken off too.

“Oh, Kent-san you have woke up? We’ve taken off your plate armor.”

“How long did I passed out?” I asked Annabella.

“Don’t worry, not for long. There’s still time for lunch.”

Feria also approached us from the training field entrance.

“Oh, Kent you have woken up. Good, I grabbed some fruits and water for us. Please drink and eat it.”

I immediately received the drink and the taste was kind of sweet and sour.

“Fuah! It’s good.”

It feels like I just come back from death. The was refreshing and as if it was supplying me with nutrition.

“So, do you want to eat lunch? I prepared some sandwiches, fruits, and some dessert.”

Annabella then started to take out some food from the lunch bucket. It was packed nicely and we’re seemed to be the only one here. The other trainees were going towards the guild dining room to eat.

“Kent please aaaahhnn…”

Feria brought a piece of sandwich close to my mouth.

I took a bite and it was good. The filling was cheese and ham which were handmade by Annabella.

"Because we're outdoors, we can't carry much and can't cook something good so we can only make some sandwich."

Hearing that, I took some sandwich and bring it towards Annabella's mouth.

"Annabella, aaah."

Annabella was embarrassed but still took a bite.

"Kent is so sly, I also want some you know, here, aaah."

Since Feria was already waiting with her mouth open, I also gave her some of the sandwich.

After the sandwich, I ate some apples and the dessert that Annabella prepared. I regained my vitality and readied for the afternoon combat training.

In the afternoon, the training field was filled with people again. Some also wore heavy armor like me. The instructors came while bringing some luggage.

"Alright, make a pair. Girl with girl and Kent will be paired up with me."

What? I will be paired with him?

“Can we change partner?” Feria asked to the instructor.

“I don’t want to hear anything. Alright, everyone go and grab a wooden sword and a shield.”

Everyone then grab a sword and shield. The shield will be used to defense and the sword will be sued for offense. We will take turn attacking and defending.

“Kent, let’s start and show them some example!”

I was given a wooden sword.

“Kent trainee, remember this, you have to firmly held the sword in your hands.”

The instructor then fixes my handle. Fufufu I will get my revenge from the running and squat.

“Instructor, what if I injured you.”

“You’re weak, just do it.”

I gripped the wooden sword with all my strength and swung it down. However, at that moment a shield appeared and blocked my attack. After being deflected, my posture was crumbling.

“Are you blind? That attack was so obvious.”

“Kuuh… damn.”

I tried to attack again, this time, I swung the sword horizontally aiming at his torso but once again the shield came and blocked my attack. It even blown away my wooden sword from my hand. It was like a shield bash and the force even emitted to my body.

“Do it seriously.”

The instructor said that while holding the shield but I am already on the ground because the armor weight.

“Well, you guys do it like this, one person defending and one person attacking. If there’s someone who is injured directly go to find a healer.”

Afterwards, everyone who’s already in pair, begin their training. Annabella and Feria also seemed to be serious in doing the training.

“Kent trainee, now it’s your turn to defend.”

The instructor passes me a shield and went to pick up the wooden sword that went flying earlier. I make sure that I grabbed the shield handle carefully. Although it was wooden shield but there was some iron to make it stronger. The shield itself was round and the diameter was around 60cm. it’s a small round shield.

“Kent trainee, don’t lose your focus.”

“Yes sir.”

I strengthen my grip.

“Alright, I’m coming. Protect your face since I don’t want to break it.”

The instructor disturbing remark didn’t slow his attack. The wooden sword was incoming and it was aimed directly at my chest. It hit directly.

“Why can’t you defend it?”

The instructor was looking down at me.

“You said that you’re going to attack my face. But it coming to my body.”

“Oh, did I really say such thing? And you should be able to defend against surprise attack like that.”

“Alright, that was my mistake.”

Once again I stood up and held my shield. This time the wooden sword was coming from above me. This can’t be wrong. I lift my shield overhead but the impact never come. The instructor sent a simple leg sweep and I fell to the ground.

“Are you stupid? By doing it like that you leave a wide gap on your body. If this was a real battle you will be dead.”

After that the instructor kept on attacking me with a sly method. He even used sand to make me blind for some moments. It was terrible.

After that, the offense and defense were swapped again. I was holding my wooden sword. But this time I really want to get my revenge. I running forward while throwing my wooden sword towards his face. He was surprised and use the shield to protect his face. It was deflected and I will grab it, to create the time for me to be able to grab it, I remove my glove and throw it towards him. However he easily catches the gloves using his other hand so my opportunity to grab the wooden sword was gone.

I collect the glove and wooden sword again. Seriously the instructor reflexes are like a monster. It will only be a luck if I am able to land a hit. I return to the starting position again but this time I get another bright idea. I really need to attack a location that is unexpected and further away from the shield. I launched an attack using my right hand which was holding the sword towards the leg and after the shield moved I move my left hand to attack him too. Seeing this, he jumped back but at that moment I threw the sword from my right hand towards my left and finally the attack hit him. It hits the shin of the instructor.

“Once again the idea was good but what kind of attack was that? There was no way that kind of attack have enough power behind them. You need to swing the sword two hundred times as punishment.”

“I’m sorry but after I managed to land a hit, I shall accept this punishment respectfully."

What's more important to me is that I am able to land a hit. However, I underestimated the instructor again. The sword that was used for punishment was an iron sword that is more than 160cm long.

"Now, Kent, do your punishment 200 times."

The instructor was smiling like demon while passed me the two handed heavy sword. This instructor is so evil. I wonder if I can do it 200 times since the sword itself was so heavy. Compared to the wooden sword, it was like matchstick and iron rod.

"One, two three…"

"Kent trainee, don't leave before you finished and the full swing need to touch the ground."

"Ugh… understood."

I swung the sword from above my head towards the ground. Even before fifty, my shoulder and elbow already became numb.

"The other trainees can go home for today and put away the tool in the guild. Before you leave don't forget to get your status appraised too."

After that, one by one the other trainees left the training ground. Annabella and Feria also came towards me.

“Kent-san are you okay?”

Annabella asked sheepishly and Feria also seemed to be worried.

“It’s alright, you don’t have to wait for me.”

“You, if you have time to talk you better use that to swing it faster. If you go like that you can only procrastinate for the rest of your life.”

Really, that instructor can even say that after all this time.

I returned to swing and do it seriously. After a while in the training ground no sound can be heard except my sword.

“199… 200… it’s over…”

I’m finished but I can’t even raise my hand anymore.

“Alright, Kent trainee that’s enough for today. Make sure you get appraised too.”

When I get back the guild hall was full of people chatting and some that finished their training were hanging out there too. Anabella and Feria were also there to welcome me.

“Kent-san, here some wet towel.”

“Kent, you are doing good holding out.”

I feel really good taking the compliment from the girls. After that we are checking ourselves but none of us get the warrior job. On the way home, I am walking while dragging myself. However, Annabella seemed to be doing just fine. As expected of a LV50 maid.

After dinner, and taking a bath, we also needed to relieve「Sexual prodigy」skill however when I arrived in the bedroom, Annabella and Feria already fallen asleep. I also decided to go to sleep too.

Neta Chara chapter 31: troublesome quest

Slash

A goblin that jumped from the side was cut clean in the neck. Miri kicked it so there's no blood from the cut that gets to her clothes. Behind her, there are twenty to thirty dead goblin stacked up.

Goblin is the monster that has been causing problem in the area. They are actually easy to kill but the number of their population is what makes it hard to beat.

"Rina, I've brought back the next wave."

The moment the crowd was brought to the plaza, there has been a《fireball》waiting for them coming from the top of a tree. Rina《fireball》easily turns the goblin horde into ashes. What remains is some charred corpses and most of the body parts are scattered around.

"Onee-san, how much have we killed so far?"

Rina who is standing on top of a tree in the middle of the square is asking.

"Around one hundred? Is Rina mana being still alright?"

Miri said that while cleaning his sword that is dirty with the blood of goblin.

"Yes, I'm okay because I have an accessories that help with my mana regeneration."

This time, it was a correct decision for Miri to bring Rina along. Because of the mana regeneration ring, the《fireball》and the crowd pulling hunting, it makes it all efficient. They thought that it's going to be an arduous task but just today they managed to almost cleared half of it.

They are also in some kind of rush because they are worried about Annabella and Feria because only the two of them are going to stop Kent's【sexual prodigy】skill. But is it really worried?

"Rina, I'm going to bring more goblins here. Please be prepare. I think I will attract much more."

"Yes onee-chan I will wait for it."

After that Miri goes back to the path where she just come from. She goes towards the goblin camp at the back of the village. Lots of goblin come marching forward. They are all starving and even resorted to cannibalism. The number of goblins here at the back of the village was around hundreds.

No one is stupid enough to approach them although the goblin is weak but the number are enormous. Even in this kingdom, there have been eight villages being plundered and raided by goblins. At that time, all of the goblin attention was directed at Miri. It was like the goblin is going to be the envoy of death while baring their teeth.

however the position is reversed. Miri will be the one that guide them to the hell entrance. Once again, she is starting to run towards the square. Most of the goblin that is targeting her is now following behind. They don't know that they are actually guided into the hell entrance. Miri also used her sword to cut some goblin that managed to get too close to her. Some even managed to grazed her arm but fortunately the armor protected her.

At that moment, something entered her field of view. It was《fireball》, the《fireball》was directed at the horde of goblin. You can see that Rina at this moment is in a frenzied state.

“You guys! You dare to hurt my sister! You’re looking for death! Sister, are you okay?”

Anyone can see that the horde of goblin is now turned into carbonized pieces of meat, no goblin left standing there..

“Rina, you must have spend a lot of mana. You should’ve save it since we’re still in the enemy territory.”

“I’m sorry one-chan, but you’re..”

“yes. I understand.”

After that, Rina and Miri go around the village to mop up the remaining goblin. Some goblin was hiding in the house and tried to do a sneak attack but no matter what it was still a goblin, they don’t posses enough threat aside from their number.

Four to five goblins was sneaking behind and tried to launch an attack however not long after, Miri used《Knife throw》and between the goblins eyebrows, there are throwing knife that is resided there. One that isn't dying from that attack come approached but Miri kicked it in the neck and it immediately broke down and die. It was such a troublesome work.

Three more new goblin is coming. Miri cut the nearest one using her sword and throw another throwing knife that pierced the neck of one of the goblin that immediately collapsed and use her sword to cut the last one.

In the distance, there is another group of goblin. They are now even trying to pull out weapon even though it was only a rusty knife. Miri easily swing her sword and decide the fate of the goblin. The last goblin is trying to flee away to the distance and Miri need to do something. She is concentrating and collecting her power.

"My power, gathered and burn my enemy,《Fire Arrow》!"

The fire arrow shot quickly towards the goblin. It pierced the goblin chest and not long after, it convulsed for some moments before letting out its last breath.

"Wheh, it's so troublesome."

When they finishing clearing up the remaining goblin, the sun is already prepared to set. Finishing her parts too, Rina is coming over to Miria while riding on top of a horse drawn carriage.

"Onee-chan…"

Rina is fidgeting.

"What is it Rina?"

“I think this time I did a good job.”

“Yes, thanks to you, you saved me several times. Oh, do you want to split the rewards fifty-fifty?”

However Rina shook her head.

“No! it’s not that one-chan. I want a different reward.”

“Oh, what is that?”

“What do you mean?”

“…your chest…”

Silence fills the air.

“Ri,Rina what are you saying? Mine is for Kent.”

“But, I wonder about it. I work so hard and on this quest too. however, I don’t feel confident. I can’t possibly go against Feria. Can I borrow yours?”

It was the outcome that Miri never imagine.

“Alright, then if the situation comes. I will use mine to handle Kent’s【sexual prodigy】and won’t lose from Feria.”

“Really sister? Haha, that Feria will be kept away.”

On the way, Miriaria feel bad but afterall she is doing this quest is also for Kent while Feria can stay with Kent. Miri can only sighed while looking at Rina who is happy now.

“Soon, I want to meet with Kent.”

The horse drawn carriage slowly moved towards Kent.

(Author note: battle round up Rina killed around 350-400 and Miri around 150, while Rina magic skill seemed to level up.)

Chapter 32: Morning Service

chirp chirp

I was woken up because the voice of the bird. The chickens were also clucking. It was already morning. My head felt heavy and I was still closing my eyes. It was because I don't want to wake up yet. Because of the training from yesterday, all parts of my body were screaming in pain. In the real world, I never experience this hardship. Even when I came to this "Grimmoire" world, I never expected to be in this situation.

I also felt embarrassed. It was a natural physiological phenomenon for a man every morning but since I came in this world, my lower member has grown considerably.

Not only that, today when I woke up I can feel my lower member is wrapped in warmth. As if it was soaked in lukewarm water. But other than that, my lower body was breezy, probably my pajamas weren't thick enough.

I decided to open my eyes and the first thing that come in sight were two round peaches that were covered by futon on the left and right. I took out the futon and I saw Feria and Annabella there.

"Kent-san."

More importantly, is having my lower member inside of her mouth. Her eyes and mine met and she smiled, she even started to move faster.

"Annabella, if you move suddenly like that, ugh…"

I was shocked at her sudden action but she didn't stop. She was looking at me with lustful eyes and some saliva came out from the edge of her mouth. That sight, really arousing and enchanting.

"Annabella, it's not good. I'm at my limit."

Annabella either didn't hear my words or ignoring me, she even sucked it deeper and stronger. This is bad, it will come out. This is a dangerous mouth service.

"Annabella, it's coming. Do you want me to release it in your mouth?"

Annabella then nodded. Was it really okay? But my thoughts can't keep up with the stimulation. I'm sorry Annabella. I grabbed her head and I pushed it deep while holding it still. Waves of pleasure came surging through my body as I released my load inside of Annabella's mouth.

"It's a lie… Kent-san really let it out?"

Feria was blushing looking at the scene in front of her eyes. Actually, I am also embarrassed. Annabella was trying her best to swallowed it all but it was a lot until some of the white liquid dripped down from the corner of her mouth.

"Can you really drink it all?"

Annabella responded by sucking me clean until the end.

"Kent-san, this is our repayment because last night we fell asleep and we can't take care of your【sexual prodigy】releasement. We made a big blunder and fell asleep."

Annabella then came to apologize while prostrating.

“If the【sexual prodigy】reached its limit last night, we will be in a big trouble.”

She was speaking it in a really sad tone.

“No, it was my fault. Yesterday I saw both of you already asleep and I feel bad from waking you up. I am also exhausted yesterday.”

“But, Kent-san it was life threatening for you. Your【sexual prodigy】need to be treated. Miriaria-san also had ordered me to.”

Ah, so it was the reason why they serve me using their mouth in the morning. I think it was alright if we missed one day. Even two day I think can still be contained. But I also have to thank Annabella for her concern and this morning has been very refreshing. After that, I heard a surprising remark from Annabella.

“Feria, now it’s your turn to service Kent-san using your mouth. Please let him feel pleasure and be satisfied. Remember we also don’t have much time before today training starts.”

Feria who was called suddenly gave a surprised look.

“What, What?”

“Yes, you’re now one of Kent-san maid (sex slave). This is one of your duties.”

Feria then under Annabella’s order put my member into her mouth.

“Do it slowly, and make sure that your teeth aren’t in the way. Only entwining your tongue is allowed.”

Under Annabella guidance, Feria became more skilled in it and without long, my member regained vitality. Feria who was keeping it in her mouth surprised at the sudden enlargement.

“Guh…Kent-san.”

She tried to move her head backwards and took it out for a while and there was some drool dripping from her mouth and creating a fine thin line towards my member. Not long after she put it back in but that one-second scene was so obscene and a spectacle to be seen. It made me excited.

“Feria, you’re making a very naughty face. I really like it.”

Feria then blushed hearing my words. She was embarrassed as she moved faster to hide it. Compared to Annabella, she was a bit clumsy but it was pleasant enough and the urge to come slowly building up.

“Feria, do you want to take it out by hand? I’m almost at the end.”

I asked it but Feria shook her head.

“Kent-sama please release it all inside Feria’s mouth.

I asked her whether she want to do it by using her hand,but Feria shook her small head. “Kent-sama, please shoot it in the mouth of the Feria. This is our punishment for forgetting about the【sexual prodigy】last night.”

After hearing Annabella words, I didn’t hold back any longer.

“Here it comes, Feria, don’t force yourself.”

After I said it, I released all of it inside of Feria’s mouth.

“Ungh…”

Feria face was distorted, I wonder if she was hurt.

"I'm sorry, you can let it out!"

I want to shook off her but she won't let go of her mouth.

"I…fuu..keho…"

Feria mouth can only speak some unclear words. I know what was happening now, it was all released inside her but she didn't swallow it.

"Kent-san, it was very bitter. I can't drink it."

With a watery eye, Feria said it hardly and inside her mouth, there were some white substances.

"If you don't want to drink it then you can spit it out or let it out in a towel first."

Annabella passed a towel for Feria after that.

"Feria, Annabella, thank you. Because of this, my body feels lighter."

I said thanks to them.

"Nevertheless, it was our own fault for forgetting about the【sexual prodigy】. Don't worry about us and no need to thank us because it was our duty."

Annabella politely answered and Feria had an apologetic look too. After that, I went to take a bath and after breakfast, we all moved towards the training ground.

Chapter 33: fierce road the be a warrior

It was the training camp for the second day, we registered in the counter and continued the training.

I am fully refreshed in the morning and I went to the training field with the two girls. In there, I waited for the instructors to come. The people who were here also didn't changed much from yesterday. After a while, the instructor coming out heading towards the training field while carrying some equipment.

"Today, we will be training body arts. In battle when you don't have any weapon or equipment, the only thing that you can rely on is your own body strength. Muscles, power, as long as your limbs are still intact you can still fight."

The instructor loudly spoke. But it all made sense, in a battle you can still attempt to punch or kick the monsters rather than giving up. After that, the instructor passed everyone the equipment that he brings.

"So, since it was the first time we will practicing this, I will show you some example, Kent, please come."

I can't believe that once again the instructor called my name out of everyone out there.

"Yes."

"Alright, stand in front of me, brings both of your hands in front of your chest and your fist should be maintained at the height of your chin."

I did what the instructor told me to.

“Well, that is a nice posture. So, I will launch a basic strike. Here I come!”

the instructor sent his warning and coming towards me. Before I could react or dodge, the fist of the instructor was coming at me. The fist seemed to be filled with spiral rotational force of his waist and arm and it landed on my stomach.

“Gaaah…”

when it hit, my breath literally stopped for a moment. Even if I was covered in leather armor, I fell to the ground on my knees because of the pain.

“Alright trainee Kent, do you see what is happening? In short, the power comes from the twist and rotation of the arm and the waist, the fist doesn’t have to do anything except to hit the target. Do you understand? Everyone, do you get it?”

although only half of the trainee seemed to be able to understand the instructor but they followed the instructions, got into pairs and prepared for the battle practice.

“Ah, I forgot about this. These are leather gloves, if you’re new to this you should wear it to reduce the chance of hurting your fist and it also reduces the power of your hit so it won’t hurt much.”

I heard that stupid instructor. You should have worn it before punching me. One more time my anger was rising towards the instructor. I tried to stand up while holding my aching stomach.

“Alright, it’s still the same as yesterday trainee Kent will be my partner. I will teach you without gloves too.”

the instructor said so while stroking his beard.

“Yes, thank you. Thank you very much because your hand is actually soft.”

I wonder what will happen today. I definitely hate this bearded instructor. Even if my body crumbled, at least, I need to get one punch in on him. Yes, I need to do it. I can do it. My grudge from yesterday is reignited.

“Alright, since trainee Kent is actually so enthusiastic, I will also teach you some counter today. Come at me.”

The instructor lifted up his arms and signaling me to come.

I tried to gauge our distance. It was around two meters and my fist can’t reach him with this range. I need to at least moving forward with two steps so my fist can actually reach him.

Although the instructors have said that he will do some counter it seemed that he was completely off guard without even putting up a battle pose, however I have battled with him enough yesterday to anticipate his tricky counter. So the best thing that I could do now, however, is catching him off from his timing.

Also, the instructor speed was faster than mine so I needed to make sure to count that in mind too.

“Trainee Kent, you just need to send an attack. Why you’re still doing nothing? Oh, let me show you again. Here!”

The instructor came rushing at me but he didn’t raise his fist. It was like luring me in to attack or trying to put me in a panic state. However, I won’t fall for this. I need to keep my own ground. Be patient, only to attack when he is already in my range.

When he was already inside my hitting range, I sent out an attack but I was too late. He catch my fist and already sent another fist towards my temple.

Really, he has been aiming for this from the start that it was annoying.

I was able to dodge it by a hair’s breadth by bending my upper body in a strange way downwards. After I dodged that, what lays in front of me was the instructors defenseless body. I aimed for his stomach and I raised my fist upwards sending an uppercut. It was only a fake as when I move upwards I sent my real attack, a kneecap kick towards his belly.

“Ugh, you dare to knee kick me.”

Knee can also become a lethal weapon and of course, the power of knee was better than a fist. However I can’t imagine at that moment he was also got the time to send two fist attack towards me, one stopped my knee attack and the other directed towards my stomach again. Although I was covered in leather armor it still hurt. I was the one sent flying backward and landed on the ground. I thought he said counter but what he did can also be count as an attack.

“I am delighted that you can think of that kind of attack trainee Kent. However did you really love lying on the ground that much? Or is it because you’re tired after some game with your maid at night?”

I can feel my anger raising further hearing his word. Hearing him making a joke about my maids is unforgivable. I want to shave his beard no, change that, I will pluck his beard one by one.

“Let me try again please.”

I stood up again and said it to him.

“The previous one is only because I want to show you how to do counter. Trainee Kent don’t feel so depressed, there is still a long way in front of you. Now, try to aim for the opponent vital points.”

as he said that, the instructor’s left hook was launched aiming at my chin. At that time, I raised my right fist to block it and when it collided, I am shocked. When I use my arm to block it, my arm immediately becomes numb. I am cursing in my mind, the instructor actually sent such a crushing power towards me.

The instructor attacks still continued. His right fist was aiming for my temple and I guarded it using my left hand.

Oh no, my lower body was now unprotected. My left arm was blocking the attack towards my temple and my right hand was still numb and my stomach and lower body were completely unguarded.

The instructor was grinning at me. He grabbed my neck instead and I can't even get myself free out of this situation. It's coming, a knee attack, he wanted to do what I was trying to do to him earlier.

The next instance you can heard the sound of bone hitting another bone. I managed to block it but using my knee too. I was saved but really that power was not something I can defend against.

"Hoo, you are so tenacious trainee Kent. Now, let's see you stop this."

The instructor then released my neck and took a back step. It was clear that right now he was already out of my attack range.

Zing

a wind cutting sound can be heard and suddenly the instructor's foot was entering my field of view. It was aimed at my chin and once again I tried my best to defend it using my arm.

However, the hit connected. It really betrayed my expectation, the instructor's attack suddenly changed trajectory midway and it was aimed at my left gut.

"Uggh…."

I can't breathe and only screamed in pain and anguish. I fall to the ground, seriously what kind of person can change the direction of his attack midway. He is seriously a monster.

I really want to pay him back. Only one hit is enough. But, how?

In my eyes, I can see some sand on the ground, can I use this to blind him? Is it alright right? Since he also did the same thing yesterday. This is my last chance. I grabbed some sand in my arm.

“What is it trainee Kent? Can you still continue? Stand up!”

the instructor was moving his body left and right as if he was provoking me. I look at my hand and clutch the sand tightly.

“Take this!”

I waited for him to come closer and at that moment he enter my attack range I threw the sand towards his face. The speed that the sand traveled towards his face was faster than the time needed for him to move his hand to block it. The sand clearly hit his face. However the instructor didn’t seemed to be panic or faltering. It was because his eyes were actually closed!

How? How is this possible?

Yes, sand can be used to blind your opponent but if your opponent already closed their eyes, it wasn’t an attack anymore.

The instructor caught my right fist that was used to throw the sands towards him and with his left elbow, he sent another attack on my gut.

“Ugh…”

“Oh, did you think that you can become good at a battle in a day? Even if you're copying what I did yesterday trainee Kent, I am still superior. But, the fake attack that actually done to hide your knee attack is not bad."

"Ugh… are you a monster?"

after I say that, I fell to the ground with a thud.

"Don't worry, I want to be good friends with you so I don't go all out. It's all because I'm a maid lover."

I can't even think anymore as I lost my consciousness after hearing that.

(Author note: this is the part where Kent does his training. It is quite hard to write a battle scene. And I was thinking whether I should give the instructor a name? And there might be some grappling and groundwork training. Feria and Annabella are also doing the training although not mentioned.)

Chapter 34: struggling to train

(Author note: the stories reached 600,000 views, thank you very much.)

After I passed out on the ground, the instructor asked some people to bring me to the infirmary. The others also got a break on this moment. Annabella and Feria also came to the infirmary.

“Kent-san, are you alright? Does it hurt?”

Annabella and Feria took off their leather armor and right now only covered in some light tunic and some under armor. This kind of equipment made it easier to move and work around and usually be worn under armor.

“Kent, the instructor said that you still need to join the training in the afternoon.”

Tch, did the instructor really feared that I will run away? Of course, I still want to pay back to him first.

“So, we will go together in the afternoon to the training field. However, we should get some food first. Is it already lunch time?”

“Yes Kent-san, please wait here, we will take some food.”

After that the three of us having some lunch. The other trainee also gathered together after the lunch break was over. The instructor was already waiting there outside.

"Alright, we will learn some grappling and hold moves in the afternoon. However, since the most suitable model for this trainee Kent is injured, I need another volunteer. You little fish over there, come!"

The instructor then pointed out at a guy beside me. Of course, the look on this trainee isn't good since he saw what happened to me.

"Well, let me show you this is called the cross arm hold, it is one of the easiest grappling move. Now, don't you dare to move or some of your ligaments can be easily torn off."

I can see from that trainee's face that it really hurts. After that, I can see that the instructor grabbed one of his arms and then moved while rolling.

"now, it is easier if you start a grapple by grabbing one of the opponent's arm. The next thing you need to do is use your foot and circle it around their neck and straighten up your body. In this kind of position, your enemy won't be able to move."

(Tl note: sorry this is such a hard scene to describe I'm sorry if you don't understand it)

The trainee that was in a bad predicament was tapping the instructors foot quickly. He iwas surrendering and trying to end it quickly. We all can see that he was in a very painful state.

"Alright, now try to do it in pairs again. Remember that if you can't hold it out anymore just tap your opponent body parts, and those need to remember we're not doing this to hurt each other, you can start! Trainee Kent, since it doesn't really need to be done in pairs and can be done in turns, you are allowed to practice this with your girls."

Since this technique can be done in turns, so right now I will practice this with the girls as instructed by the instructor. Well, the girls themselves doesn't have any objection and we were just following the instructor's instruction.

"Because it is his instruction so, Feria, Annabella, please take care of me."

"However, for me to perform a grapple on Kent-san, it's…"

"I can't it is the same as hurting you."

Because the two seemed to be reluctant, I need to give them a little bit push.

"This is the instructor's order. If we didn't do it, what do you think will happen to me? He will give me more punishment."

The two have a troubled face after hearing that but after a moment of thinking, Annabella spoke to me.

"This is inevitable because we don't want Kent-san to suffer another punishment. However, I need to ask you please surrender if you really can't hold out anymore."

"Yes, I am also afraid that I might hurt you more and even break your bones, so please tap out if you can't take it."

Feria also agreed and then our training started.

Annabella then performed the cross arm hold on me. However, I don't feel anything, not even some pressure, it seems that she probably worried about me. Annabella on the other hand still acted as if she was doing the technique properly but I can't help it now. After all, right now I can feel Annabella's nether area around my elbow and the back of my hand was in contact with the softness of her chest.

“Ahn.”

Annabella then let out a strange moan and it immediately my lower body replied with a reaction.

“Kent, I think we should stop, it’s not looking good.”

Feria said that with a flushed face while looking at my lower half.

“Annabella, I think we should stop this. Ugh…”

However, she didn’t stop but tightened her grip. Right now she also turned my hand so it was directly grabbing on the soft mounds on her chest. This hurts a bit however; I can’t deny the waves of feelings that I received just now. Also, my elbow is now rubbing against her nether area and only a simple leather garments standing in between the way. After several times back and forth movement, gradually face turned a bit red as if she has a fever.

“Annabella? Are you alright?”

As I ask, Annabella showed me an aroused face.

“I’m okay… this is, part of the training.”

Annabella tried her best to hide her embarrassment however I suddenly have a mischievous thought. I moved my hand and gripped the soft mound within my palm.

“Ahn… Kent-san… this is training… you should wait until we return to the house if you want me to service you.”

“But, I can’t just have enough of it. No matter how many times I touch it.”

However, I stopped once I realized that the instructor was looking at this way.

“Trainee Kent, your hand is in a wrong position, Trainee Annabella, his palm should be facing upwards.”

After hearing that, she fixed the hold and I can feel a ridiculous pain coming from my arm.

“Aaaah, it hurts! It hurts!”

Then I tapped Annabella foot in a hurry.

“Ah, sorry, Kent-san are you alright?”

Annabella immediately released the hold and asked. It was dangerous, I can feel that my arms can be dislocated at any time. Really, this was all that bearded instructor’s fault.

“Ah, it’s alright Annabella. This is all my fault because I can’t hold back.”

“No, it was my mistake. It must be because we didn’t give you service last night and what we did in the morning barely do anything.”

Annabella said that while looking at me with serious face.

“But really, it was just a sudden impulse and the service in the morning is good.”

“Alright, everyone, pay attention again!”

Annabella worry dissipated as we look at the instructor again.

“Now, the next technique is a chokehold. The point of this moves is to make the opponent lose their consciousness by limiting the blood flow by strangling their neck. Once again remember this is only a practice and tap out if you feel that you're going to pass out. You, come here!"

The instructor the called out another random trainee.

"Here, let me demonstrate. First you get your arms around your opponent's neck under their chin like making a hoop. Now make sure their jaw will rest on top of your elbow for a firm grip. And while making sure your arm makes a V shape, you bring your arms closer to your body."

In less than a second, the trainee tapped out. I can only give my condolences imagining the power of that strangle.

"Alright, now you can practice it."

After the instructor finished his demonstration, this time Feria will be the one who do this to me.

"Kent, here I come."

This time, I can feel something soft on the back of my head. Definitely, it was soft and bouncy. Feria was trying to do the grapple on me however her arm was not placed correctly under my jaw.

"Eh, is this correct?"

After several times of trial and error, I can feel more and more of the soft lumps of flesh behind my head. It is nice, I can't believe I am able to enjoy Feria's chest like this.

"Fuuh, hyaaa."

Feria was letting out some sound while she was trying but her hot breath landed on my ear, and another reaction happened from my lower body.

"Feria, please don't breathe on my ear."

"Eh? What was that?"

Once again Feria hot breath grazed my ear. I feel pleasure and some weird urge building up.

"Feria, stop talking please."

"Eh? Did I accidentally found out Kent-san weakness?"

This is bad, this is bad. This is not the right time and place for this.

"Kent-san, so your weakness is your ear? Fufufu."

This is bad, now Annabella found out about it too. after this, if Miri and Rina found out about it too, they will be teasing me and attacking me. At least, I need to make sure Feria doing it right, and I looked towards the instructor.

"Trainee Feria, you're not doing it right, you need to make sure that your arm is beneath trainee Kent's jaw. Here, like this."

"Is it like this?"

I can feel Feria arm circling my neck and strangling me.

“yes, then bring it closer to you as if you’re hugging him.”

“Ei!”

Under Feria’s strangle, it doesn’t take long before the blood vessels in my neck were lacking blood circulating and the supply of oxygen to my brain was also reduced.

“Kent-san, can you still continue? If you want, we can stop now.”

However, Feria’s voice seemed to be coming from far away. No, it was my consciousness that was fading away. Yeah, I am losing my consciousness.

I fainted while thinking of such thing. When I woke up I am in the infirmary again.

“Kent, I’m sorry! Please forgive me!”

Feria was apologizing deeply with her forehead touching the ground.

“No, it’s okay Feria. It was me who forget to tap. You can raise your head.”

After that, Feria was looking at me.

“Kent-san are you really okay? Did you feel pain anywhere?”

Annabella also asked to me anxiously but I don’t see any other damage other than fainted out and losing my consciousness. I might be close to death there but I don’t think it was a good idea to say that.

“No. anyway, is today training has finished?”

“yes, it has finished. The instructor also allowed us to go home directly. Shall we return?” Annabella was asking for my opinion.

“Yes, let us go home. Feria, let’s go home too.”

After packing up, we’re heading back since there’s nothing else that we can do here. On the way home I didn’t acquire any skill or job. It seems that the path to be a warrior for me in this world won’t be an easy one.

(Author note: sorry it was so hard to explain the grapple and hold moves. It is because I never practiced martial arts.)
